A PUBLIC meeting was held at Brownsville on Thursday evening to appoint delegates to the Monongahela Valley Railroad Convention to be held at Elizabeth, in this county, on Thursday next.

IT is stated that Congressmen Judd, Farnsworth, Windham, Thad. Stevens, General Butler, Marston, and Rice, of Maine, with a number of other prominent Northern men here become largely interested in gold mines in Georgia.

THE new Horticultural Hall, Philadelphia, covers a surface of 15,000 square feet, being larger than the old Chinese Museum of that city, which covered an area of 12,000 square feet, while the celebrated music halls of New York or Boston fall considerably below the size of the Museum.

THE SUPREME COURT of Pennsylvania, in session at Harrisburg, a full bench being present, except Justice Strong, absent in Europe, yesterday unanimously decided the Schuylkill county Criminal Court bill unconstitutional, and granted a mandamus compelling the Court of Quarter Sessions to issue veneris and resume its functions.

THE President has suspended Wm. R. Whittaker, Assistant Treasurer at New Orleans, and appointed J. C. Walton to the place. This is the first removal under the tenure of office act, which requires evidence of fraud or malfeasance, before the President can act, and then he has to report his action to the Senate within twenty days after the commencement of the next session.

GEN. BUTLER's story about the pardoned deserters of West Virginia is effectually disposed of by the testimony of Col. Moore before the Judiciary Committee, who testified that the only paper presented to the President was a petition signed by the Brigade Surgeon, setting forth the fact that the parties were not deserters; that the President referred the petition to the Secretary of War, and an investigation in the War Department showed that the soldiers were not deserters; that they were restored to their positions, &c., and that they, therefore, never were pardoned.

THE news that the government of Brazil had abolished slavery was "premature." The matter is under consideration, and an enterprising Brazilian newspaper, the Rio Diario, learning thus much, ingeniously invented such a bill as it thought likely the government would prepare, and published it as having been adopted in the council of state. It is considered certain that emancipation in some form will be ordered in Brazil, and probably in the shape suggested by the Diario—the freedom of all children born after a given date and emancipation of all slaves in the year 1900.

The Dunderberg.

It appears to be the very general, although erroneous, impression that the Dunderberg is one of the most, if not the most, powerful war vessel now afloat, and that, therefore, our Government was very unwise to allow her to be sold to a foreign Government. The facts do not sustain this view of the case. The Dunderberg is by ordinary mensuration inferior in size to the Warrior, Black Prince, Northumberland, Agincourt, Minotaur, and other well-known English ships. The hull of the Dunderberg, below the angle of the casemates, is covered with iron but three and a half inches thick, and the iron plating surrounding her battery varies from four to four and a half inches in thickness. In point of armor, therefore, the Dunderberg is inferior to nearly every iron-clad in the British Navy. The class of monitors now being built in the Brooklyn Navy Yard, though smaller than the Dunderberg, carry fourteen inches of iron all around the hull, to the three and a half inches of the Dunderberg, while they protect their batteries with fifteen inches of solid iron instead of four and a half inches, as is the case in the former vessel. Recent experiments in England have proved that the nine-inch gun, which chilled projectiles, would go through both sides of the casemate of the Dunderberg with ease, while a monitor of the Kalamazoo class would send her to the bottom in a very short time. By the use of Ericsson's new gun-carriage the Dunderberg can mount a five-inch in broadside, and her battery, therefore, is more formidable than its protection is secure.—New York Times.

A Dwelling and its Contents Sink Into the Ground.

On Friday afternoon, 10th inst., a singular and startling accident happened near Girardville, at the foot of Mahanoy Plane, about six miles from Mahanoy City, Schuylkill county. It seems that at that point a "breast" of the Boston and Mahanoy Coal Company's colliery, had been worked to within about twenty feet of the surface of the earth, and that located just above it stood a two story frame building, occupied by Mr. Thomas T. Myers, a breaker-boss at the colliery, and his family. He also had a number of boarders whose clothing, etc., were in the house. About three o'clock on Friday afternoon, as Mrs. Morris Robinson, of this Borough, wife of the Superintendent of the colliery, who was on a visit to the house, and Mrs. Myers, were in the kitchen, they felt the house moving and rushed in haste into the open air. Two minutes had hardly elapsed after they left the house, before it sank with a surging, swaying motion into a huge chasm, to the depth of about eighty feet. Large masses of earth and rock from the sides of the chasm, immediately closed in upon the house, burying it almost completely from view. The crash when it went down, was tremendous. The complete entombment of the dwelling which was about thirty-five feet long, may be imagined, says the Miner's Journal, when we state that the chasm formed by the sinking of the mine, would readily have admitted a building over one hundred feet in length. The house contained seven beds and bedding, four stoves, bureaus, and other furniture, besides a considerable quantity of clothing, a Sunday School library and some money. There was fire in several of the stoves, and shortly after the occurrence smoke was seen issuing from the earth which covered the roof, rendering it almost certain that the house had been set on fire. Streams of water were directed into the chasm, and it was hoped that the house would not be entirely destroyed. Fortunately, the startling occurrence was not attended by the loss of human life. Had it taken place at night ten lives might have been lost. But it took place in an hour when some of Mr. Myers's children had gone to school, while the others were playing outside.

STATE ITEMS.

The winter grain never looked more promising in Perry County than it does this spring. The prospects are also fair for a full grass crop.

A popular vote was taken in Franklin, last Saturday, as to whether E. C. Lytle or ex-Senator Thomas Hoge, should be the Republican candidate for Legislature from Venango County. Hoge received a majority of twenty-eight votes.

The growth of the lumber business on the Susquehanna has demanded the enlargement and extension of the "boom" at Lock Haven.

John E. Plunkard has been sentenced to the Western Penitentiary for a term of fifteen months, for an outrage committed on Miss Eliza J. Hilburn, of North Beaver, Lawrence county.

Mr. Thomas L. Caldwell, cashier of the Tyrone Bank, died at Tyrone, on Monday morning last, after a week's illness.

Hon. Galusha A. Grow, ex-Speaker of the House of Representatives, has accepted an invitation to deliver a Fourth of July Oration in Titusville.

The contractors have "broke ground" for the erection of the new Court House at Meadville.

It is said farmers in many parts of the State are compelled to replant their corn fields, as that planted early rotted during the continuous rain of May.

Shannon Taylor, residing near Altoona, Blair county, has the largest strawberry patch in the State, outside of those near the cities, and this year will have an abundant yield.

Robert Reynolds, Sr., who had been a resident of Lawrence county for sixty-three years, died on the 16th inst., at his residence near New Castle, in the ninetieth year of his year. On Wednesday, the 11th of April, 1866, there was a family reunion of all his children, at the old homestead—eight sons and four daughters—met with their venerable father, whose hairs were whitened with the frosts of ninety winters. His oldest child then was sixty-seven, and the youngest forty-one; at that time he had eighty-five great grand children, and at the time of his death he had great-great-grand children.

The Catholics of Danville having decided to build a church, one hundred men connected with the iron works in that locality devoted last Saturday to digging the cellar.

Lewis Boner, convicted at the last session in Perry county for the crime of refusing a deserter's vote, has been pardoned by Governor Geary.

The liquor law was enforced in Philadelphia Sunday. All the taverns were closed, but the back doors were open invariably, and there was as much drinking done as usual.

Bishop Wood preached his farewell sermon at the Roman Catholic Cathedral in Philadelphia Sunday, to about three thousand people. He leaves for Rome next month with several of the priests of his diocese, and takes sixty thousand dollars in money, besides many beautiful and valuable presents to the Pope.

REASONS PREFERRED FOR SHERIDAN'S REMOVAL.

Object of Gen. Thomas's Summons to Washington.

PROBABLE FATE OF MAXIMILIAN

Attorney General Engaged on Another Opinion.

Secretary McCulloch's Opinion of an Extra Session of Congress.

"We Need Industry More than Legislation."

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Commercial.

WASHINGTON, May 27, 1867.

Reasons for Sheridan's Removal.

The reasons preferred by the Louisianians for General Sheridan's removal are as follows:

First, That he has not arrested any one concerned in the July riots in New Orleans.

Second, That the same chief of police wh then officiated is still in office, and on socia terms with Sheridan's staff.

Third, That he refused to approve the removal of the Chief of Police, which was made by the new Mayor, and the appointment of a Union soldier in his place.

Fourth, That not one colored man has been placed on the police force.

It is further stated that the President cannot be blamed, for he has not even interfered with General Pope, the most rigorous of the district commanders. The President, however, declines to interfere with General Sheridan, but considers and refers only questions of law propounded to him by citizens of Louisiana, to the Attorney General.

Gen. Thomas with the President.

Gen. George H. Thomas had an interview with the President to-day, in company with the Secretary of War. Among the matters on which Gen. Thomas was interrogated was the condition of affairs in Tennessee, the alleged arming of the militia, etc. He does not think that the public peace will be disturbed in that State.

Impeachment.

The Impeachment Committee to-day examined Mrs. Ella Washington, of Georgetown, who was reported a year since to be a pardon broker.

The Capture of Maximilian.

The Mexican Legation and the State Department have confirmatory advices of the fall of Queretaro, and the capture of Maximilian. It is the expectation here that the latter will be executed. Juarez informed the Mexican Minister that Maximilian first raised the black flag, and executed Liberal officers, and that he must abide the consequences of his act. The Austrian Minister has been conferring with this Government and Senor Romero relative to the saving of Maximilian's life, but nothing has been done beyond forwarding Secretary Seward's protest to Juarez, that in the event of his capture he should not be treated otherwise than as a prisoner of war.

Another Opinion.

Attorney General Stanbery is at work on his second opinion on the Reconstruction act, on the power of commanders of military districts to displace civil officers of the State and municipal governments.

The President's North Carolina Trip.

None of the Cabinet have signified their intention of accompanying the President in his North Carolina trip on Saturday next. He contemplates making it a quiet affair, and does not desire any public reception.

The Extra Session Question.

Secretary McCulloch has just written a letter, in which he says: "The report that the condition of the finances would require a special session of Congress originated, doubtless, with certain persons who want a session for purposes of their own. A session is certainly not needed as far as the Treasury Department is concerned, and I have no hesitation in saying that a special session would affect injuriously the credit of the Government. We need industry more than legislation."

Personal.

Brevet Major General Heintzelman, Colonel of the Seventeenth Infantry, serving in Texas, is expected here in a few days. He has just been allowed an opportunity to take advantages of a leave of absence allowed him on being mustered out of his grade in the Volunteer army.

The President's Boston Visit.

The Masonic Committee have had another interview with the President, and he has finally given them such assurances relative to the time of his visit to New England, that they have at once commenced preparations to furnish him an escort of two hundred Knights Templars.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The trial of John H. Surratt, on motion of the Government, was postponed until the 10th of June, in order to afford time to procure the attendance of several important witnesses. United States Attorney Carrington and Judge Pierpont briefly argued in favor of the postponement or continuance of the case till another time. Several important witnesses are absent. Efforts have been made to secure them, but without success. One was in New York, the second in Maryland, a third in Michigan, the fourth an actor who has gone to California. These witnesses may possibly appear at any day. New testimony and new facts have also been recently discovered; new developments have also been made in the case of such importance that the prosecution would not like to go to trial unless perfectly ready and prepared.

Mr. Merrick replied, stating that Counsel for defense had been diligently engaged in bringing witnesses to Washington, at a heavy expense; one of them from Canada, and another from the extreme Southern end of the Union. If the case was further continued, or postponed till next term, it would be impossible to keep the witnesses here.

The Court thought it would be well to call the witnesses, in order to determine whether some future time should be set for the trial.

Judge Pierpont moved that the case be postponed till the 10th of June.

Mr. Bradley opposed the motion, saying the United States had ample time to have witnesses here.

The Court, after consideration of the subject, said the case would be postponed until two weeks from to-day, in order to afford further time to procure the attendance of witnesses.

FENIAN SENTENCES COMMUTED.

The Secretary of State has received a dispatch from London, announcing that the capital sentences of the Fenian leaders Burke and McCafferty have been commuted to imprisonment for life.

WESTERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received from the Secretary of the Interior information that the President of the United States has accepted the first section of twenty miles of the Western Pacific Railroad, commencing at the corner of Dame and San Pedro streets, in the city of San Jose, and extending to a point near the eastern boundary of Alameda Canon, in Alameda county, California, and ordered the issuance of a patent on account of said section in conformity with the law.

EMANCIPATION IN BRAZIL.

Counsellor De Azambuja, late Minister of Brazil at Washington, under date of New York, 20th, has addressed a letter to Secretary Seward, in reference to the reported emancipation of slaves in Brazil. He says: "I have only to communicate to your Excellency that I have not received any official notice that the Imperial Government has decreed the emancipation of slaves in the Empire, as published by the press in this country in a telegram received through the Submarine Cable, and this I do in this way, and from a mere scruple about my position, not doubting but that this measure is already resolved upon by my country, in principle at least, to go into effect, as to the manner of execution, with the concurrence of the Legislative Chambers."

MAY FESTIVAL.

The celebration and May festival of the Roman Catholic Sunday Schools took place today. At least 3,500 children were in line. When the procession had passed in review before the President, two of the May Queens, their carriages halting, severally presented him with bouquets, and one of them delivered a brief speech, in which she said they had been to-night to pray with one effective voice that he especially might receive light and strength from Heaven to direct wisely, and benignly teach their dear native land. The compliments were appropriately acknowledged by the President, and the boys cheered him as they passed along in procession.

CHICAGO.

THE BAPTIST ANNIVERSARIES.

Report of the Board of Publication.

Marked Progress in the Operations of the Society.

Special Dispatch to Pittsburgh Commercial.

CHICAGO, May 27.—The American Baptist Publication Society continued its regular anniversary meeting this morning. An address was delivered by the President. The President then announced the standing committees, which appointments were approved.

The Treasurer's report for the year ending March 1st, 1867, was read by Rev. J. M. Pendleton. Total receipts in benevolent department, $92,440 60; disbursements in same department, $92,422 42; receipts into business department for year, $144,670 59. Disbursements, $147,716 08. The report was accepted and adopted.

The forty-third annual report of the Board of Managers was read and adopted. It commences with a brief but fitting tribute of respect to the memory of the late Rev. Joseph H. Stennard, formerly Chairman of the Board, who died on the twenty-fourth of last June. The total receipts of the year ending March 1st, 1866, were $249,727. Deducting the memorial fund of $50,000, the receipts are $199,728, which is four times what they were at the beginning of the decade.

The society's progress is equally marked in other particulars. In 1857 we printed 23,000,000 pages of tracts; in 1867, 171,000 pages were issued. In 1857 the total number of publications were 539; the list now numbers 923. The grants in 1857 were $1,308 25; this last year they amounted to $71,026 43. In 1859, the Society supplied nineteen Sunday Schools and fifteen ministers with libraries; during the past year, 239 schools and 130 ministerial students have been supplied with valuable reading matter for their libraries, and nearly a thousand persons with tracts for free distribution.

The present capital of the society is estimated at $140,204 38, and is made up as follows: $26,285 73 in real estate; $45,015 29 in stereotype plates; $51,875 90 in stock; $17,027 46 in balance due on bills receivable. The real estate is reckoned at its first cost, but the present value is very much more than the sum named.

Last year the board announced their purpose to add to their already manifold work a district Sunday School Mission work. It is our privilege this year to report that the enterprise has been inaugurated. All colporteurs have been charged to give special attention to the formation of Sunday Schools, and they have organized 120. But in addition to these, the Board have placed in the field twelve strictly Sunday School missionaries. Two such appointed are in Missouri, one in Michigan, one in Ohio, one in Western Virginia, three—one white and two colored—in Virginia; one in North Carolina, one in Georgia, and two—one colored and one white—in Louisiana. One is under appointment for Pennsylvania. Most of these laborers were appointed late in the fiscal year, and are now just prepared to fully enter upon their work.

Forty-nine colporteurs have been in commission during the year.

The freedmen have received special attention from the Board. Seven Sunday School Missionaries are working among them exclusively. Seventy-four colored ministers and fifty-four Sunday School scholars have been furnished with libraries.

A very large amount of reading matter has been sent to missionaries and teachers of other boards for distribution in their respective fields. The value of all grants made during the year was $51,026.

After the reading and adoption of the report of the Board, about an hour was spent in listening to addresses from Rev. J. B. Simmons, of New York, and E. D. Jones, of St. Louis. At twelve o'clock, the meeting closed till three this afternoon.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 27.—The American Baptist Publication Society continued its regular anniversary meeting this morning. After prayer and an address by the President, the report of the Treasurer was read. The report shows the receipts in the benevolent department last year, $92,440 60; expenditures, $92,422 42. Receipts in the business department, including balance, $147,725 26; disbursements, same time, $147,716 08. The report was accepted and adopted. The forty-third annual report of the Board of Managers was then read and adopted. The meeting will continue until Thursday. A larger number of delegates are present than at any previous anniversary, between four thousand and five thousand being in attendance.

XENIA, OHIO.

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Appropriation to Freedmen's Missions.

Statement of the Case of Rev. McCune.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Commercial.

XENIA, OHIO, May 27, 1867.

In the United Presbyterian General Assembly, to-day, $21,000 were appropriated for the use of the Board of Freedmen's Missions.

Dr. W. T. Findley appeared as the delegate from the Old School Presbyterian Church, presented the salutations of his Church, and was responded to by the Moderator.

As the Assembly is progressing toward the case on which the interest of the whole Church is centered, viz: The McCune case, it is proper to present to-day a brief statement of this case, and its present standing. The following presents it in a few words. The sixteenth article of the Testimony of the United Presbyterian Church declares in effect that the sacraments are to be administered exclusively to those who acknowledge the authority of the Church. At the time of the adoption of the testimony it was agreed that the forbearance in love, which is required by the law of God, be exercised toward any brethren who may not be able fully to subscribe to the standard of the United Church, and while they do not determinedly oppose them, but follow the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another. Mr. McCune has declared and published himself, as is alleged, in decided and determined opposition to the sixteenth article. The last Assembly directed his Presbytery to try his case. That Presbytery referred the case to the Second Synod of the West, under whose jurisdiction it is. That Synod acquitted Mr. McCune, and the case is now before the Assembly by appeal from that decision.

A preliminary question was reached just before adjournment, respecting the right of Synods to vote in cases of appeal, and was under discussion when the Assembly adjourned. There is no doubt that this case will elicit the very deepest interest, and it is thought by some to endanger the very unity of the church. It will likely be reached to-morrow. J. R. M.

FROM ROCHESTER, N. Y.

Proceedings of Presbyterian General Assembly.

ROCHESTER, May 27.—The Presbyterian General Assembly was this morning occupied on unfinished business of minor importance. Delegates to corresponding bodies were appointed. The report of the standing Committee on Ministerial Relief was adopted. The Assembly recommended the observance of the week beginning with the first Sabbath in January as a week of special prayer for the conversion of the world. The observance of a day of special prayer for colleges and seminaries was also recommended.

THE TURF.

Spring Races Over Buckeye Course, Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, May 27.—The spring races over the Buckeye Club Course, opened to-day. Two races were announced, the first a hurdle handicap for all ages, stakes $500, two miles, over eight hurdles, but was postponed on account of the weather. The second race was for the Buckeye Club stakes of $500, mile heats, for three year olds. Three horses started; the first heat was won by Kean Richards's bay colt, by Lexington: time 1:51½; the two last heats were won by Alexander Marion, in 1:55 and 1:58½. The weather was very unfavorable, as it rained nearly all day, and the track heavy. The attendance was consequently small. To-morrow bids fair to be pleasant, when the Burnett House stake will be contested for.

LETTER FROM LOUIS KOSSUTH.

Note From the Danish Government.

The Fenians.

LONDON, May 27.—The question whether the death sentence of the Fenian convicts shall be carried out engrosses public attention. The press of England and Ireland generally urge that the sentence be commuted to imprisonment for life.

A dispatch from Dublin states that the jury brought in a verdict of guilty against O'Brian, coupled with a recommendation to mercy.

It is said the American Minister, Mr. Adams, will interpose his good offices to save the prisoner McClure from the scaffold.

Sentences Commuted.

LONDON, May 27, Evening.—It is authoritatively announced that the Government has commuted all capital sentences of Fenian prisoners to imprisonment for life.

The Schleswig Question.

The Danish Government has addressed a circular note to its representatives at the Courts of European powers, denying the truth of the report which had gained some credit, that the Prussian Cabinet had entered into negotiations with the Cabinet at Copenhagen, with a view to bringing about a retrocession of the province of Schleswig to Denmark.

Letter from Kossuth.

TURIN, May 27.—M. Kossuth has written a letter on state political affairs in Hungary, in which he condemns the course of action which M. Deak, the leader of the popular party, has seen fit to adopt in the Hungarian Diet, and in his dealings with the Imperial government of Austria, and blames him for swerving from the true path which the Hungarian patriot should follow.

Address of National Reform Union to Mr. Gladstone--Memorial Asking Mercy for Condemned Fenians, &c., &c.

NEW YORK, May 27.—The steamers City of Baltimore, from Liverpool, and Tampico, from Havre, have arrived.

The National Reform Union, in an address to Mr. Gladstone, asked him to take up the bold cry of household suffrage, as it would have the sympathy and approval of the whole nation. He responded reassuringly, and was caustic in criticising the Government bill. He explained the reasons which led him to adopt the five-pound line, and would not say that under no circumstances would he revive it. He did not commit himself, however, to the bold cry of household suffrage.

Mr. Bright also addressed the Union, advising petitioning throughout the country.

A public meeting in Dublin, presided over by the Lord Mayor, adopted a memorial to the Lord Lieutenant asking that the lives of the condemned Fenians be spared.

The United States Offer to Sell to Russia a Fleet of Iron Clads---The Proposition Favorably Received---Plan for the Settlement of the Eastern Question---The Fenian Prisoners--Another Demonstration in Favor of Reform.

NEW YORK, May 27.—The Herald has the following specials by the cable:

ST. PETERSBURG, May 25.—The Government of the United States has offered to sell to the Czar the famous iron clad monitor Miantonomah, a frigate and two new and very fast iron clad war cruisers. The proposition has been favorably received by the Emperor and his Cabinet, and is likely to be accepted.

Since the adjournment of the London Peace Conference, and the adjustment of the Franco-German quarrel relative to Luxemburg, the long vexed Eastern question has assumed much more importance. Diplomacy is now engaged in the consideration of a plan for its peaceful settlement, and efforts will be shortly made for its final solution.

DUBLIN, May 25.—If the Fenian leaders Col. Burke and Col. McClure, who pleaded guilty and thus avowed their treason are hanged pursuant to law, the authorities expect sudden and sharp reprisals on the part of the members of the Fenian organization here. The counsel who prosecuted for the Crown are guarded day and night by a force of armed policemen, who appear in citizen's dress. Col. Burke was sentenced to be hanged on Wednesday, the 29th of May. Mr. Doran's death sentence has, I believe, been commuted. Should Burke be executed it is most likely that Col. McClure will share the same fate, as he pleaded guilty, and now lies condemned to undergo the highest penalty of the law.

LONDON, May 25.—Another imposing and very influential demonstration has been made in favor of Parliamentary reform, in the shape of a very crowded meeting, held at St. James's Hall, to-day. John Stuart Mill, with the Liberal members of the House of Commons, attended, and spoke earnestly in support of the extension of very comprehensive measures of enfranchisement for the people.

REMOVAL OF GEN. SHERIDAN CONTEMPLATED.

The Tribune has a rumor that the removal of General Sheridan from the command of the Fifth Military District, and the appointment of General Thomas to the vacancy, is contemplated by the President.

YEARLY MEETING OF FRIENDS.

The yearly meeting of the Society of Friends (Hicksites) took place at the meeting house in Rutherford Place. The propriety of the members accepting places under the Government was the chief subject that occupied the attention of the members, some being opposed to it and others expressing themselves disinclined to leave the control of State affairs in the hands of the wicked.

[Signed] "BENITO JUAREZ."

Yours truly,

M. B. MARSHALL,
E. L. PLUMB.

NEW ORLEANS, May 27.—A dispatch via Brazos on the 21st, to Gen. Griffin at Galveston, contains the following: "I have just received official information from Berriozabal, and the United States consul at Matamoras, that Queretaro was captured by the Liberals on the 15th inst. Maximilian, Mejia and Castello are prisoners.

[Signed] "J. J. REYNOLDS,
"Maj. General."

MATAMORAS, May 22, via NEW ORLEANS, May 27.—The following was received from Gen. Escobedo to-day:

"CITIZEN MINISTER OF WAR: At 3 o'clock on the morning of the 15th, La Cruz was taken by our forces, who surprised the enemy. Shortly after the garrison were made prisoners, and our troops occupied the Plaza. Meanwhile the troops retreated towards Cerro De La Campana, where our artillery caused him to surrender at 5 o'clock A. M. Maximilian and his Generals, Mejia and Castello, surrendered unconditionally. You will please give the President my congratulations on this triumph of the National army.

[Signed.] "ESCOBEDO."

General Escobedo reports from the interior that President Juarez has ordered Arch-Duke Maximilian and all his Generals to be shot.

MATAMORAS, May 25.—The Liberal force which took possession of Queretaro has started for the capital. Commodore J. D. Payana, of the Mexican Navy, has been ordered by Gen. Berriozabal to command an expedition against Vera Cruz. The Liberals have taken possession of the steamer General Sheridan, for naval purposes. So ends the struggle in Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, May 27.—A dispatch from Brazos via Galveston, says a letter from the American Consul at Monterey, confirms the reported capture of Maximilian. The reply of President Juarez to Minister Campbell recounts the grievances of his party in consequence of the conduct of Maximilian. He justified previous executions, and declines to promise the safety of Maximilian in the event of his capture.

FROM BUFFALO.

No Preparations for an Invasion of Canada---Bishop Lynch Improving.

BUFFALO, May 27.—There is no truth in the report of Fenian activity here for the immediate invasion of Canada. Everything is quiet in Fenian circles.

Bishop Lynch, of Toronto, is slightly better.

From Galveston.

GALVESTON, May 27.—An attempt to collect taxes levied here during the war in Confederate currency, which would cause great sacrifice of property by Union men, has called forth an order from Gen. Griffin, forbidding its collection.

Judge Reeves, of the Ninth District Court of Texas, decides that negro witnesses are not competent in a trial of white men.

The Sheriff of Victoria county has refused to take greenbacks as legal tenders.

Value of a Husband.

BALTIMORE, MD., May 27.—In the Superior Court this morning, in the case of Adeline Price vs. the Northern Central Railroad Company, an action for damages for killing the plaintiff's husband by first crushing him between their cars at Cockeysville, and then locking him up all night in one of their warehouses without medical attendance, in consequence of which he died, the jury returned a verdict for $15,000 damages.

MUSICAL ITEMS.

Gounod's Romeo and Juliet has been brought out at the Theatre Lyrique, Paris. It is spoken of favorably by nearly all, enthusiastically by most of the professional critics. They are disposed to place it above rather than on a level with Faust. The part of Juliet, admirably sung by Madame Carvalho, was listened to and applauded warmly by Patti, who is said to have prettily remarked, "I will do my very best to sing it as well as she." Patti is to fill the role this season in London. She is re-engaged here at the Italiens for next Winter—where she has been, is, and will be next year, a great favorite, but where she did not, and cannot create a "tremendous excitement," as has been recorded in first-class newspapers. Observe, primo, that Parisians are not as excitable as New Yorkers; secundo, that Patti's singing and pretty acting are not at all of a nature to provoke tremendous excitement in any appreciative audience. The habitual audience at the Italiens is appreciative of good music and clever acting, but regards all "tremenduosity" of excitement as in extremely bad taste. Adah Isaacs Menken, what with her break-neck riding bare-back to bare-back across the stage at the Gaiete, and exposing her person photographed in all sorts of postures, in dress and undress, in the shop windows, has created sensations. But don't, my dear countrymen, couple sweet singing, artistic, lady-like Patti and her well-bred, art-loving admirers, with this coarse extravagance of unfit phrase.

Astounding successes attend the interpretations, by astounding artists, of that most astounding of operas, the "Africaine." So says the Revue et Gazette Musicale; and further narrates, week after week, how flowers spring up beneath the feet, and stars shed blessings on the head of every singer who takes part in that masterpiece; how earth greets each one, fame awaits him, the plaudits of the multitude are in his ears, and his honored name goes down to the benedictions of posterity. As a mere coincidence, the copyright of "L'Africaine" happens to belong to the proprietors of the Revue et Gazette Musicale.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

The National Convention of Railroad Car Masters, which convened in Springfield, Mass., on the 15th inst., adjourned to meet in Altoona, Pa., on the 18th of September next, when the National Association of Car Masters will be organized.

The Cross Cut Railroad will be in running order from Brocton, on the Lake Shore road, to Mayville, at the head of Chautauqua Lake, on Monday next. The steamer Chautauqua will leave Mayville for Jamestown, on the arrival of the train. This makes a pleasant route for passengers from the oil regions to Buffalo. It is expected that the Cross Cut Railroad will be fully in running order by the 1st of June.

Recently we noticed that a number of conductors on the Pennsylvania Railroad had been rewarded for their faithfulness by receiving a present of $100 from the Company. A few days since Marshall Speakman, S. G. Grone, C. Davis, Joseph Stackhouse, Mathew McAteer and J. T. Bell, conductors on Philadelphia and Middle Divisions, were made the recipients of like compliments.

E. W. Woodward, former Superintendent of the Little Miami, is to be President; and J. Durand, the efficient Superintendent of the Pittsburgh, Columbus and Cincinnati, is to succeed Mr. Woodward as Superintendent of the Little Miami.

The first train over the Cross-cut Railroad from Buffalo to Corry, passed over the road on Thursday. The road strikes the Lake Shore Road at Brocton, and will be a popular route between Buffalo.

The President of the Bear Creek Railroad Company has concluded contracts for the iron, locomotives, passenger and freight cars requisite for this road. It will not be long now till the laying of the track will commence.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Danville, Hazleton and Wilkesbarre Railroad, recently held at Sunbury, the following officers were elected: President, S. P. Kase; Directors, Wm. I. Greenough, Wm. Hancock, A. F. Russel, Benj. Hendricks, S. P. Wolverton, H. W. McReynolds and Geo. Hill.

FROM BROOKVILLE, PA.

The Grain and Fruit Prospect---Conviction of Charles Chase [of the Murder of Mrs. McDonald---Sentenced to be Hanged---Lectures---The Temperance Cause---Delegates to the Republican State Convention.

Special correspondence of the Commercial.

BROOKVILLE, PA., May 23, 1867.

The "merry month of May" was ushered in with rain and storm, and every day since its advent it has continued to rain; until we begin to think we are to be visited by a forty days' rain, ending in a deluge as of old. Owing to the backwardness of the season, very little spring grain has been sown; but farmers assure us that the fall grain looks unusually well. The late severe frosts have proved very injurious to the fruit, especially as regards the cherries and peaches.

Last week court was in session here, Judge Campbell presiding, and our town was unusually brisk, a great many persons being present to attend the trial of Chas. Chase alias Chas. Winton, for the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth McDonald on the 19th of February last. The case was conducted, for the Commonwealth, by District Attorney S. A. Grunder, Hon. I. G. Gordon, A. S. Gordon, Esq., and Jno. McMurry, Esq.; for the prisoner by W. P. Jenks, Esq., and Geo. A. Jenks, Esq. The jury was empannelled on Wednesday, and the trial occupied the time until Saturday evening, when the case was submitted to the jury, who, after twenty-seven hours' deliberation, on Sunday evening returned a verdict of "Guilty of Murder in the First Degree." By a strange coincidence, it was just three months, less two or three hours, from the time the murder was committed, when Chase was brought into Court to receive the verdict of the Jury. At eight o'clock on Monday morning, Judge Campbell sentenced the prisoner to be hanged in the jail yard, at such time as the Governor shall appoint. Chase, since his imprisonment, and during his trial, has borne himself with the most stolid hardihood, evincing no interest in the matter—of such vital importance to him—except by his persistent efforts to escape. Even when Judge Campbell, in a voice broken by emotion, sentenced him to death, he showed no signs of feeling. Dean Graves, the equally guilty participator with Chase in the horrible deed, is still at large.

During last week, our citizens were favored with two excellent lectures, eloquent and instructive in their nature, by Colonel Frazier, the well known President of the State Agricultural College. Professor J. R. Weaver, of Dixon Seminary, Dixon, Illinois, delivered a very able and eloquent address before the Temperance Convention, held in the M. E. Church, in this place, on the 14th inst. Professor Weaver, though a very young man, is a fine orator and a finished scholar, and his address was made up of sound reasoning and able arguments in favor of total prohibition.

The temperance cause in Jefferson county gained one triumph this week over King Alcohol, as the Court, on Monday, owing to the remonstrances presented, refused to grant license to any saloon or eating house in the county. By this righteous act Brookville is rid of four or five of those miserable dens of drunkenness, and nurseries of crime and poverty. A number of hotels were served in like manner, and the Court admonished those who received license, that if they did not conform to the strict letter of the law, their license would be revoked. The persistent efforts of the Good Templars, assisted by a few other friends of temperance were instrumental in effecting this victory; and as a natural consequence they have evoked upon themselves the dire and deep curses of the rum-sellers, who are furious at the refusal of the court to license their death-dealing traffic. As an ardent friend of temperance, we should have wished that the hotels should have received the same treatment as the saloons; but a "half loaf is better than none," and with the worst evil abated the friends of temperence can go to work cheerfully until they gain a prohibitory liquor law for Jefferson county.

The Republicans held a caucus during court week, and appointed Gen. Harry White and Geo. W. Andrews, Esq., Senatorial and Representative delegates to the State Convention, to be held at Williamsport, Pa., on the 24th of June, subject to the decision of the conferees of the several districts. The delegates were instructed to support our worthy townsman, Hon. Isaac Gordon, for the nomination for Supreme Judge. VERITAS.

LITERARY ITEMS.

It is announced by Messrs. Ticknor & Fields that they have completed an arrangement with Mr. Charles Dickens, which gives them his sanction as the only authorized publishers of his works in America. They are about to issue two new editions, one called "The Charles Dickens Edition," intended to combine "legibility, durability, beauty and cheapness," and the other, "The Illustrated Library Edition," which is the favorite edition of the author himself. In a letter to the publishers, not remarkable for either grace or correctness of expression, Mr. Dickens declares that "in America, the occupation of his life for thirty years is, unless it bears their imprint, utterly worthless and profitless to him."

Professor Theophilus Parsons, of Cambridge, Mass., the writer upon Jurisprudence and Swedenborgian Theology, is said to be engaged on a work to be called "Deus Homo," embodying a popular presentation of the New Church theory of the divine humanity.

Mr. Charles Reade's own dramatization of his novel of "Griffith Gaunt" has been produced at the Newcastle Theater, Avonia Jones playing "Kate" and Mr. H. Sinclair playing "Griffith." The drama appears to have been thoroughly successful. Its first representation lasted nearly four hours. All the principal performers were called before the curtain, and the author himself was finally summoned to receive the congratulations of the public.

A book was recently announced in London, with this singular title: "The Spirit Disembodied. When we die we do not fall asleep: we only change our place." By Herbert Broughton.

It is remarked by the Athenæum as a sign of the times that the Italians are evincing great interest in German literature, Italian translations having been made of the works of several modern German poets, and especial admiration being felt for Freiligrath.

English papers note the arrival from Bombay of two new words. The first is diglot, the term by which a Bombay newspaper printed in English and Marathi describes itself: the other, jointstockeries, needs no explanation. They seem to be very good words in their way, though we presume they will shock careful conservists of the language, like Mr. Gould, who, by the way, are to be congratulated on the failure of its admirers to establish photogram, a word which they seek to justify by the analogy of telegram, forgetting that there are no two significations of their noun, as there are of the other.

The Preservation of Silk.

Silk articles should not be kept folded in white paper, as the chloride of lime used in bleaching the paper will probably impair the color of the silk. Brown or blue paper is better; the yellowish, smooth India paper is best of all. Silks intended for dress should not be kept long in the house before they are made up, as laying in the folds will have a tendency to impair its durability by causing it to cut or split, particularly if the silk has been thickened by gum. Thread lace veils are very easily cut. But dresses of velvet should not be laid by with any weight above them: if the nap of a thin velvet is laid down, it is not possible to raise it up again. Hard silk should never be wrinkled, because the thread is easily broken in the crease and it never can be rectified. The way to take the wrinkles out of silk scarfs and handkerchiefs is to moisten the surface evenly with a sponge and some weak glue, and then pin the silk with some toilet pins on a mattress or feather bed, taking pains to draw out the silk as tight as possible. When dry, the wrinkles will have disappeared. The reason of this is obvious to every person. Some silk articles should be moistened with weak glue or gum water, and the wrinkles ironed out by a hot flat-iron on the wrong side. —Leisure Hour.

EXPERIMENTS ON RESPIRATION.—Pettenkofer and Voit have made further experiments in the improved respiration apparatus, and have found that more oxygen is absorbed during sleep than when the person is awake, and that more carbonic acid gas is exhaled by day than by night, and much more when the person is engaged in labor than when comparatively inactive. On the night following a day of hard labor there is an increase over the normal quantity of oxygen absorbed. The facts observed render it probable that oxygen is stored up in the body for several hours, where it assists in the process of slow oxidation of the nutriment taken during the day. Even on days of rest, the quantities of carbonic anhydride and water eliminated are greater than those which correspond to the bulk of oxygen absorbed during those days. The same quantities of carbonic anhydride are exhaled during the nights following days of work and of inactivity, and evidently result from the muscular movements made during sleep; but on the nights following working days there is a great increase in water giving off by respiration. The same amount of urea is secreted in working as in resting days, showing that the work of the muscles is performed without an increase in the decomposition of albuminoid substances. This statement does not agree with the experiments made by Houghton as to the quantity of urea resulting from muscular or mental work. The general results obtained by the first named experiments confirm those by Henneberg in 1865 when experimenting on oxen.

GOV. MORTON, of Indiana, has gone to Hot Springs, Arkansas, where heretofore he obtained considerable relief. The best wishes of thousands attend him.

Sandwich Islanders.

The Hon. Alfred Caldwell, late United States Consul at the Sandwich Islands, returned to his home in Wheeling, on Saturday last, after an absence of five years and eight months. Mr. Caldwell gives many interesting items in regard to life among the Sandwichers. He thinks their Islands a good place to go for temporary banishment, but not the place of all others that he would choose for another five years sojourn. The climate is enjoyable enough, being an average of 75 degrees throughout the year, but the musquitoes abound day and night all the twelve months round. The houses have no chimneys and consequently no fire places, the only use for that element being for culinary purposes, and as for ice, it can be imported at the trifling cost of some thirty-two dollars per pound from San Francisco. It is a luxury therefore that even the King does not indulge in. The native population of the Islands is not on the increase, having run down from one hundred and forty thousand to seventy-three thousand between the years of 1828 and 1853. The scourge of the country has been the small-pox, and the inhabitants, of the Malay race, are very slothful and licentious in their habits. There is a considerable European and American population who carry on most of the trade and commerce of the Islands. The tendency of the natives is towards an English policy in religion and politics, inasmuch as they imagine that the United States contemplate a raid on their territory sooner or later, and are therefore prejudiced against American influence.

THE PROPOSED METHODIST UNION.—The Mobile Advertiser says: "The body of ministers and laymen representing the Protestant Methodist and the Methodist Episcopal Church South have not yet agreed upon a plan of union of their respective churches. The question now under discussion is the adoption or rejection of a substitute for all the papers submitted, the substitute recommending the reference of the whole matter to the various annual conferences of the Protestant Methodist Church.

WASHINGTON INCOMES.—The income tax list of the District of Columbia is being published. Henry D. Cooke reports the largest income, $69,000; W. W. Corcoran, $35,000; General U. S. Grant reports, over and above that received from the Government, on which tax is deducted, $4,800; Secretary Stanton, under the same circumstances, $2,500; and Postmaster General Randall, ditto, $2,800.

C. E. SINCLAIR, who was concerned in the robbery by means of a fraudulent check of $20,000 of United States bonds from the Ninth National Bank of New York, and is now in the penitentiary at Philadelphia, states positively that certain detectives in New York knew of the robbery, and received ten per cent as their share of the plunder. Other stories are told of the force which are not creditable to them.

EMIGRATION TO VIRGINIA.—The Richmond Enquirer urges the people of Virginia to extend encouragement to emigrants by selling them land, and treating them with neighborly kindness. It desires emigration in order to develop the resources of the State, and to secure a preponderance of white population.

CITY MATTERS.

IN MEMORY OF THE DEAD.

Soldiers' Monumental Fair at City Hall--Its Commencement This Evening.

At City Hall, this evening, will be opened to the public the Fair for the benefit of the Soldiers' Monument Fund, and the ladies and gentlemen of the Monumental Association having nobly performed their duty in providing a pleasant and attractive resort, it remains now for the patriotic masses of the county to discharge their duty by liberally patronizing it during its continuance. No argument is needed to convince American citizens that they owe a debt of gratitude to the noble men who have gone to their eternal rest that the Union might be preserved, and no solicitation should be required to urge the prosperous and patriotic to give of their means to the praiseworthy object in whose behalf the Fair this evening will be inaugurated. It should be the aim, however, of every individual citizen to do something for the success of the undertaking, as upon its result will depend the character of the monument that is to commemorate the names and deeds of our lamented dead.

The excellent taste and skillful hands of the ladies of the Monumental Association, aided by a committee of gentlemen, have converted City hall into a most delightful retreat. Evergreens, worked into festoons, wreaths and arches, meet the eye on every hand, and flags, eagles and stars are profusely displayed. On entering the hall, the first object that strikes the eye is the floral pagoda, whose pillars and roof are covered with evergreens. Here are to be displayed the choicest flowers, in bouquets and wreaths, singing birds, and a variety of pleasing articles. Beyond this, and in the center of the hall, Mr. Elliott, landscape gardener, and a soldier, has constructed a very pretty rustic fountain, inclosed with a circular rustic fence. Above the fountain is suspended a chandelier, covered with evergreens. Between the fountain and the stage, on a raised platform, is the beautiful hose carriage, whose mirrored sides reflect the handsome objects within their range.

On each side of the Hall are arranged the booths, which are neatly festooned with evergreens, and decorated in such a manner as the taste of the several occupants dictated. They are all attractive, and creditable to the skill and taste of their designers. Entering the hall, and turning to the right, the visitor will come upon booth No. 1, which had not been assigned yesterday afternoon. Adjoining this, No. 2 is a variety booth, where will be located the "grab bag," and other attractions, under charge of Mrs. Cote. No. 3, next to this, is appropriated to the Third United Presbyterian Church, Rev. Dr. J. G. Brown. No. 4 is under the charge of Rev. Richard Lea, of Lawrenceville. No. 5 is in the hands of the First Presbyterian Church, Rev. S. T. Scovil, while the Third Presbyterian Church, Rev. Herrick Johnson, has the adjoining one, No. 6. Christ M. E. Church, Rev. Dr. Morgan, has been assigned to No. 7. Booth No. 8 is devoted to the display of the magnificent dressing gown, to be voted to the most popular soldier in the county. No. 9 is an independent booth, under the charge of Mrs. General Pearson. The ladies of Manchester have No. 10, and Mrs. Shaffer and Mrs. Hillerman No. 11. Another independent booth, No. 12, the last on the right side of the hall, is a telegraph office.

Commencing at the left of the stage, booth No. 13, under charge of Captain W. B. Cook, is devoted to the display of war relics. No. 14 is a variety booth, under the charge of the ladies of Allegheny. No. 15 is an express office. At this place, also, will be sold, on commission articles turned over from the exhibition of the blind. No. 16 is the space allotted to the magnificent chair to be presented to the Commandant of the Post of the Grand Army of the Republic receiving the highest number of votes, and will be retained in the organization. The ladies of Mansfield have the adjoining booth No. 17, and the ladies of the Ninth ward, No. 18. The handsome double booth, Nos. 19 and 20, has been assigned to the ladies of Shadyside, who will make a splendid display. Two ladies of the Executive Committee have charge of No. 21, and will make it a miscellaneous booth. No. 22 is assigned to the beautiful prisoner's chest. No. 23, the last, is another telegraph office, connecting with the first near the stage.

The stage will be under the charge of the Pittsburgh Subsistence Committee, who, although they had closed their patriotic organization, and returned to their respective positions in private life, followed by the grateful thanks of hundreds of thousands of soldiers, have consented to provide for the hungry during the Fair. The stage has been covered with matting, and small tables have been provided, at which single meals, or meals for two or more, will be served up with promptness. An elegant sideboard occupies the rear of the stage. Four pillars on the stage and one at each side of the hall, covered with muslin, and festooned with evergreens, will support an arch or canopy, under which the meals will be served. Their kitchen is provided with all the necessary culinary articles, and are new, clean and bright. Messrs. Richard Breed & Co., 100 Wood street, have generously furnished all the chinaware to be used by the Committee, and Messrs. Bakewell, Pears & Co., Wood street, have kindly provided them with all the glassware they desired, as well as two aquaria for the pagoda. Merchants and business men must not forget that the ladies of the Subsistence Committee, who waited upon our gallant soldiers during their march through the city, will be present during the Fair, and give their assistance in securing its success.

Among the features at the Fair will be a neat shell-boat, of McKay's manufacture, which is to be competed for by the friends of Hamill and Brown.

THE OPENING TO-NIGHT.

Gen. J. K. Moorhead will deliver the opening address this evening. All who desire to be present should procure their tickets during the day, in order to prevent crowding at the door. While the opening ceremonies will be brief, they will be most interesting.

All Assistants at the Fair are requested to procure their badges, and meet at City Hall at five o'clock this afternoon, without fail.

Tickets for the Fair may be procured at A. J. Rankin's Drug store, St. Clair street; Weyman & Bro., Smithfield street, and J. C. Mattern's Drug store, corner Third and Smithfield streets.

Persons having relics, flags or curiosities to loan are requested to send them in to-day.

THE SUBSISTENCE COMMITTEE.

The Subsistence Committee propose not only to furnish meals to all those who attend the Fair, but to have everything in the way of refreshment, which will be sold at reasonable rates. Ice cream, water ice, strawberries, mineral water, lemonade, cakes, oranges and confectionary of all kinds. The Committee ask from our baker's and confectioners donations of cakes, candies and fruits of all kinds. From persons in the country donations of milk, cream, butter and eggs, and flowers, will be accepted. Persons who intend making donations of articles for the dinners are requested to send word to the Committee at once, the articles they will contribute, and the day they are to be sent. Send to City Hall, rear door, marked "For the Subsistence Committee," or leave at Weyman & Bros., Smithfield street, or Geo. Albree, Son & Co., Wood street.

We are informed that Mr. John Dyer, Jr., of Allegheny City, will receive all articles sent from the country by rail to the depots on Federal street, Allegheny. Our friends in the rural districts will, therefore, place all their donations in the baggage cars of the train, and rest assured that they will reach City Hall safely. If it is more convenient, persons may send any articles to the news depot of Mr. J. T. Sample, at the railroad station. Goods coming on the Pennsylvania Railroad may be left at the office of the Union Depot Hotel, up stairs.

INSANITY OF A FORMER HOTEL KEEPER.—A verdict of insanity, by a Jury of Inquest, has been presented in the Court of Common Pleas, setting forth that George Aurentz, who was, for many years, owner and proprietor of the Mansion House, on Liberty street, has been insane since 1859, and the Court confirmed the verdict. The verdict involves the title to the Mansion House, and some ten or twelve thousand dollars worth of personal property, which passed out of Mr. Aurentz's hands in 1862 and 1863, and he is now living at the City Poor Farm. The parties who hold the property have employed counsel, and intend to contest the case. The amount at issue is between fifty and sixty thousand dollars.

A RUNAWAY HUSBAND.—The Wheeling Register of yesterday says: "Mrs. Nora Rollison, of Pittsburgh, arrived in this city last Saturday night, in pursuit of her runaway husband, who had eloped with her sister, and whom she had traced to this city. It seems that this is the second escapade the amorous pair have made. Rollison is represented as a good looking fellow with brown curly hair and a handsome mustache, and is well gotten up to play the part of a gay deceiver. The police are on his track, and if he is in the city will probably return him to his injured wife."

NEW HOSE CARRIAGE.—The new hose carriage ordered by the Niagara Fire Company some time since, was completed on Saturday, and removed to the company's house on Penn street, in the Fifth ward. The carriage, which was built by Messrs. Workman & Moore, of Allegheny, is similar to the one used by the Friendship.

ALLEGHENY LIBRARY.

Annual Meeting of the Association--Condition of the Library---Election of Officers---Public Meeting.

The second annual meeting of the Allegheny Library Association, was held last evening at the Library Rooms, in the City Building, Allegheny. The attendance was quite large. At a quarter-past eight o'clock the meeting was called to order, the President, John Brown, Jr., Esq., in the chair, and Alex. Leggate, Esq., officiating as Secretary.

The secretary then read the following report of the condition of the Association:

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The meeting then proceeded to the election, by ballot, of officers of the Association to serve for the ensuing year, with the following result:

President—John Brown, Jr.
Vice President—A. H. English.
Secretary—A. Leggate.
Corresponding Secretary—William Hamilton.
Treasurer—J. N. Davidson.
Directors—J. B. Clark, Robert Lea, James Lockhart, Samuel Riddle, James McBrier, Robert Elton, James E. Stevenson.
Auditors—Wm. Semple, W. W. Martin, James Caldwell.

PUBLIC MEETING.

While the balloting for officers was going on, the old officers resigned their seats, and a public meeting was organized by calling Gen. Wm. Robinson, Sr., to the chair, and appointing Samuel Riddle, Esq., Secretary.

The Chairman, through the Rev. John B. Clark, D. D., stated the object of the meeting was for the purpose of creating increased interest in the Library, and extending the sphere of its usefulness in the community.

A. H. English, Esq., was called upon and delivered an address. The gist of the address seemed to be in opposition to consolidation, and did not affect the interests of the Library at all.

Addresses were then delivered by Josiah King, Esq., Prof. Elder and others, after which the meeting adjourned.

Lecture on Temperance by Gen. S. F. Carey, of Cincinnati, O.

The deep interest felt in the success of the Union Soldier's Monumental Fair, and many other circumstances, effected the attendance at Lafayette Hall, Wood street, last evening, where Gen. S. F. Carey, of Cincinnati, O., the distinguished advocate of the Temperance Reform movement, delivered a lecture on Temperance, its progress and final success. Those who did not hear him last evening will have an opportunity to do so to-night, as General Carey will lecture at the same place, and on the same subject, and we understand that his remarks will be partly devoted to the question of prohibition in this State by statute law—a question with which he is perfectly familiar, and in discussing it he cannot fail to be interesting.

General Carey lectured for nearly two hours, last evening, to an appreciative and edified audience. His style and manner is very nearly like John B. Gough's, and he is more argumentative than the latter. He thoroughly understood his subject, handled it with marked effect, and never let the interest flag for an instant. His propositions were few. These he stated with clearness, and defined and arranged them logically and eloquently. Many facts were related to show that the history of the Temperance Reform Movement in this country is one of a progressive warfare against strong drink as a beverage—an aggressive conflict on the part of the Temperance men and women of the present century. Marked changes in the public sentiment from what was once the prevailing notion (forty years ago) were visible upon every side. It was not confined to localities nor classes. In those days of enlightenment, even the rum-seller and rum-drinker, alike, were proud of their children because they were sons and daughters of Temperance. True patriotism, philanthropy and christianity demanded the complete success of the Temperance Reform movement. Everybody was convinced that a sober nation is a necessity on this side of the Atlantic. Temperance being an essential and intrinsic part of the christian religion, was sure to win the day, and float its standard over the walls of the enemy's stronghold. There never was a movement inaugurated and designed to elevate mankind in the moral and social scale, that did not meet with determined opposition; and good efforts succeed gradually. But wherever the religion of Christ gained a foothold—there too, the daughters of Temperance will be sure to organize. The triumphs of one will follow the triumphs of the other. The work was more than half accomplished. It required patience, endurance and faith in God to accomplish it. There should not be any subject in which the American people should show a livelier interest. He entertained the highest confidence in their love of religion, pure morals, and natural intelligence, and believed that they will never grow weary in so noble a cause as Temperance.

AQUATIC SPORTS—MATCH BROKEN OFF.—We are sorry to say that the disappointment attendant on the result of the match between Hamill and Brown, has been followed by one only secondary in importance hereabouts. The exciting race which was expected to take place between Mr. Joseph Scott, Champion of the Allegheny, and Mr. Samuel Brown, of Port Perry, has been declared off by mutual consent, and the forfeit money, being awarded by the stakeholder to Mr. Scott. This causes the title of "Champion of the Allegheny" to still remain with Mr. Scott, and he intimates his intention to maintain it against all competitors. It is possible that a contest of interest may be brought about through the reputation thus secured to Mr. Scott, which will excite almost as much popular enthusiasm as the match for the Championship.

FAMINE.

[From the Louisville Courier, May 22]

THE DESTITUTION IN THE SOUTH IS INCREASING, and the cry for bread is heard from quarters every day that have not appealed to us before. The distress is becoming more heartrending and more general. Agents from various parts of the South, many from portions not heretofore heard from, are arriving daily, pleading for food for the people they represent, and each mail brings letters praying for help. The Southwestern Relief Commission has done a great deal of good in sending supplies. Many lives have been saved by the timely donations of our citizens. Letters of acknowledgment, overflowing with thanksgiving for the favors received come to the Commission every day, but the same letters contain appeals for more. The supply, in nine cases out of ten, is insufficient to preserve life until more reaches them, even if it be sent at once. Sections that have been independent of our aid until now, are now in utter want. The once wealthy and proud people of the South are now beggars for bread.

Reader, when you sit down to-day at your table, laden with the best food the market affords, even the luxuries that are not essential to life, think of your poor starving fellow creatures who have not so much as a crust of bread to eat, and resolve that you will do your duty by contributing of your abundance to them: and do not acquit your conscience by giving a mere pittance. Secure for yourself the rich blessings of God and the luxury of an easy conscience, by giving according to your means. A tithe of what you possess would not make you so rich if invested in any other way, or if saved for selfish purposes, and it would be the means of doing an incalculable amount of good to those who are suffering for food. Do not delay, or the good you would do may be lost. Starving women and children cannot await your convenience. Give something to-day and be liberal.

The subscriptions to the POST SOUTHERN FAMINE FUND, now reach $7,369 25, and all who wish to contribute to send food to the starving people, are invited to send in their donations early to the office of THE POST.

No matter how small the amount may be, it will be kindly received and promptly forwarded to the Southwestern Relief Commission, of Louisville.

The Daily Commercial

TUESDAY, MAY 28, 1867.

IF we are to believe the Mexican reports, MAXIMILIAN is a prisoner in the hands of the Liberalists. Of his capture there has for some time been no doubt, the only question being what would be done with him.

THE old Southern political leaders die hard—nevertheless die they must, and politically. It is according to the testimony of many witnesses capable of speaking on the subject, that the Republican cause is making rapid progress in the South, and is certain to triumph there in the election of a majority of Republican Congressmen. This state of things is not likely to be changed before the election takes place.

SOME surprise is expressed that WENDELL PHILLIPS does not extend his labors to the South. Those who feel so, however, pay little heed to the history of the man and the school to which he belongs. Though in his opposition to slavery no one shrieked louder than Mr. PHILLIPS, yet he has seldom co-operated with those through whose labors slavery was overthrown. Now that it has been overthrown, it is but natural that Mr. PHILLIPS should be found acting, as of old, in opposition to those who are directing their efforts to the management of the grave concerns relating to the interests of the freedmen and questions growing out of emancipation.

THE negro vote, a new article in Virginia, is engaging no small degree of attention in that State. The Valley correspondent of the Enquirer entertains and communicates somewhat gloomy anticipations about it. The people who are disposed to turn up their noses in a sublime state of contemptuous inactivity, have the alternative placed before them of bestirring themselves or being outvoted by the negroes. So says the writer:

"Contrary to my first opinions, I am convinced that the negro vote will be larger than seems to be generally anticipated, and more uniformly against the whites. This is the opinion of those whose opportunity of judging correctly is much better than a traveler can enjoy. It will be necessary for our people to register and vote more generally than they seem disposed to do in order to keep our State Government out of the clutches of the immaculate Hunnicutt."

The case is before them and they takes their choice.

A GENERAL reduction of the amount of labor, whether it is measured by hours or any other mode, has a tendency to raise the wages for what labor is done, just as the raising of less cotton, grain or sugar has a tendency to increase the price of these articles. But this true principle of Political Economy rests on the two conditions, that the demand for labor is not diminished, and that no new sources of supply are opened. In that case the reduction of labor would insure an increase of wages. The advocates of the eight-hour law must have contemplated such a rise, incidental to the twenty per cent. reduction of labor, although they now disclaim the intention of directly demanding full pay for diminished work. But the above conditions immediately proved fallacious, as might have been easily foreseen. The demand for labor, under the circumstances, was reduced. Men could not, and would not go on with their enterprises under assurance of loss. And further, new supplies of labor were found to be pouring in to meet the demand. Consequently there is no reduction in the amount of labor, where the experiment of the law has been tried, and neither is there any increase of wages. The laws of Political Economy are fully vindicated.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.

The glorious Fourth was once the Festal-day of the United States. Other nations celebrate the birth day of their kings, we celebrate the birth day of our nation. The observance of it, as such, was universal, spontaneous and enthusiastic. The "Old Thirteen," that signed the Declaration and indorsed it, and in a seven years' war honored it, celebrated its returning anniversaries with intelligent and rejoicing acknowledgments. JOHN ADAMS did not, in his prophetic language, strike the tone of the grand national jubilation on too high a key, for the patriotism of Americans, when he predicted the annual celebration of the glorious event with processions, speeches, the roar of cannon, the waving of flags and the blazing of bonfires.

But the charm seems to be broken. The old American feeling appears to have declined. Elements have been poured into the stream which have corrupted its limpid waters. Among the rising generations born on our own free soil, the Declaration is becoming almost a forgotten document. Among myriads of our population born in other lands, its very name and history are unknown. It requires formal introduction, to elicit patriotic feelings in the minds of the young and the stranger. And the Anniversary is the proper time to give it. A good old-fashioned celebration of "Independence Day," as it was long affectionately and gratefully called, would be, at the present time, a means of arousing and unifying the old American feeling. It would have an influence—a strong and salutary one, we trust—by rejuvenating the old Revolutionary traditions of common trials and triumphs, to overlie and repress some of the more recent traditions which threaten to crystalize into antagonistic forms.

Should the Declaration of Independence go into oblivion, to the brink of which it seems to be approaching, by common neglect, Independence itself will not be long in following it. In some of the States the Declaration was virtually ignored, under the growing influence of slavery, and the observance of the anniversary of its publication was suffered to go into neglect. The growth of sectionalism, based on slavery, met with no opposition from the patriotism inculcated by the honorable traditions of the country, and but a generation was necessary to give this pernicious idea full possession of the field. Secession was a natural result of the rotting of the old ties.

We need a succession of grand Independence Anniversaries, to revive the old associations between North and South, to invigorate the love of the old traditions in the new States of the National family, to arouse and direct the patriotism of the rising generation, and to diffuse our political principles and the knowledge of our Revolutionary history among the vast numbers of the people of other climes domiciled in our country.

UNION AMONG CHURCHES.

The readers of the COMMERCIAL will have noticed, of course, that the last fortnight we have given them early news of the meetings and proceedings of a large number of religious bodies in different parts of the country. And they must have noticed also that in many of these bodies propositions and discussions have been introduced, touching the subject of ecclesiastical unions. This, we imagine, springs from one of those spontaneous and almost mysterious popular impulses on the public mind, which characterise different eras of history. If so, it will not stop of itself, and cannot be stopped by opposition, till it shall have accomplished its design.

Religious denominations have been regarded, and there is much in their history to justify it, as having an unfortunate facility for division. We are not aware that it has been confined to any sect or class of sects, or that the disposition to separate organizations has been indulged in one much more than another. It is, in some form or relation, the consequence of old ADAM getting too strong for young MELANCTHON—in other words, it is human nature—and it therefore appears among all Christian sects, both Protestant and Romanist, and likewise among Mohammedans, Jews, Hindoos, and probably all other religionists.

It is the more noticeable, therefore, that in these times religious denominations should be seeking affiliation and union with each other, both in this country and in Britain. The approaches are conspicuous and by no means slow, in several of the cases that have been announced in our news columns recently. The most prominent scene of these discussions and movements is in the area of Presbyterianism. We attribute it, in a considerable degee, to the removal of the slavery difficulty, which was long the occasion of alienation of feeling and difference in policy. There are at least five branches of this Church which are now either indulging aspirations or taking formal measures for union. They are looking kindly toward each other, they are greeting each other with friendly salutations, in their several Assemblies. And some of them are maturing conditions of actual union. This is in pleasant contrast to the manners of former years, not very remote, when no delegates visited the bodies reciprocally, when no letters passed between them, and no recognition of each other in any way was indulged.

We are not of those who consider different denominations as maintaining different religions, nor of those who can class but one denomination under the grand Head of the Christian family, but we rejoice to see the attractions of brotherly love growing operative towards the union of Denominations, and a pretense thus taken from those who ground on the diversity, objection to the cause itself. Besides, it is evident that augmented efficiency must result from a junction of forces and efforts. Either of these results, and still more, both present strong reasons for persistency and wisdom in the efforts for union among churches.

A LETTER from Yates county, New York, published in the Commercial Advertiser, says a meeting of subscribers to the Tribune has been held there and that it was determined to discontinue the paper, and that resolutions were passed severely criticising Mr. Greeley's action in the Davis bailment. It is fairly to be inferred that something like a crisis has been created in the affairs of the paper, but it is not probable that the editor will abandon the course he has marked out for himself. In quarters where the Republican sentiment is strongest, Mr. Greeley is most condemned; and he himself must be willing to admit that there is neither wisdom nor chivalry in hurling defiance at public sentiment so genuine and sharply defined. The Republican Press, which with great unanimity has dissented from the act of bailing Mr. Davis, will scarcely feel complimented or be conciliated by the epithet "insects," which he hisses out against them. As a matter of fact it may be stated that here and there is to be found a Republican journal approving or excusing Mr. Greeley—otherwise the Republican Press of the country is unanimous in its censure.

THE law or custom that precludes the members of the royal family of England from intermarriage with subjects of that Government, is attended with the inconvenience of making matrimony in high places a matter of state policy rather than of personal affection, and of sometimes placing the English people virtually under a foreign rule. One of the consequences of extending the suffrage to all the people might reasonably be expected to be the election of their chief ruler, somewat after our fashion. We occasionally make an unfortunate choice, but still ours is a better way than to depend for our highest executive officer on the accidents of marriage and birth. The accident of death has been sufficiently afflictive to our nation, by the succession it has given us in all the three cases in which it has occurred. The testimony divined thence goes strongly in favor of election as the mode of getting rulers, in preference to having them brought in by birth, marriage or death.

THE Tribune regrets that positive data are still wanting to prove that the spread of elementary instruction diminishes crime. May not this arise from the fact that children are taught to consider manual labor as derogatory to educated people, that in educating the brain, we teach them to expect to live by brain labor? Men who, like Mr. Lincoln, rose from a position of manual labor are constantly held up, before boys, as models for imitation; and the one lesson they catch is the getting away from rail-splitting. Hence the rush for places as clerks in professions or offices, "while our millions of hands want acres, and millions of acres want hands." If education is not to be an incentive to expedients for "living by my wits," those gentlemen who deliver school addresses must cease awakening the ambition of every boy to be President, or at least go to Congress, and of every girl to be the President's wife.

WHETHER the large number of houses now in process of erection are built with the capital of their owners or borrowed money—and it is likely some are built in each way—we are glad to see them going up. It is a good use to make of somebody's money. And it shows that somebody has money to employ in that way. The number of houses rising in all directions, around, still more than in the city, is very large. It promises better accommodation for the people next year, and less trouble in getting homes, than they have had for five years past. We have no fears that things will not come to their normal condition, after the disturbance given to them by the war. There is too much freedom, enterprise and elasticity, to allow of any permanent derangement like that which has temporarily existed with reference to houses and rents.

THE Chicago Republican of the 25th devotes a long leader to the Illinois Insane Hospital, urging upon the Legislature an Investigating Committee. The charges of cruelty which have been published are pronounced "incredible, improbable, not to say absurd." If experience is worth anything, the probability is that less than a tithe of the truth is told. Responsible signatures are not often found to charges of this kind until the reality greatly exceeds the charge. Individuals do not care to run against benevolent institutions with established reputations, as the power of officers of such institutions in overawing or bribing witnesses is almost unlimited. The committee will have to make very thorough work indeed to get at the truth in this case.

NO FURTHER particulars have been received of the failure of Fraser, Trenholm & Co.; but from the known large assets of the firm in this country, it is very generally expected that the suspension will be only temporary. The firm bought immense amounts of property in Charleston, and large tracts of land in South Carolina during the war, paying for them in Confederate currency, and in this way acquired vast wealth for a merely nominal consideration. It is asserted that from one-half to two-thirds of Charleston is owned by the firm. Reports also state that, last year, they paid taxes upon $14,000,000 of property in South Carolina.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Richmond Enquirer writes, from the Shenandoah Valley, that the farmers have solved the labor problem, as we long ago advised them to do, by going to work themselves, and taking personal oversight of such hands as they have to hire. He also says that the breadth of ground sown with wheat in the valley, as well as in Fauquier, Warren, Rappahannock and other neighboring counties, is greater and that the crops promise to be better than before. The season is backward for corn, but the farmers are making great efforts for a good crop.

THE Paris Exposition is turning out in every respect, better than first appearances promised. The attendance lately is very great, and the verdict quite generally is that the affair is neither a swindle nor a failure. The greatest attendance is on Sunday, which in Paris is the great holiday. But on that day, the American and English departments are closed, a circumstance that occasions much disappointment to Continental visitors, whose style of civilization is not of that sort.

IN letters from Paris describing the French exhibition, we find such statements as these:

"Neatness, order, decency are everywhere; and if there is anything else in Paris, it does not make its appearance in public. People come out by the hundred thousand—all the liquor shops are open; there is no Maine law; the supply of liquors is unlimited, and not one person is seen drunk."

The difference between Paris and almost every city in America, is indeed great. Is it owing to the liquor or the people?

A NEW YORK correspondent of a Boston paper, after mentioning the fact that Jefferson Davis has gone to Canada, fixes the period of his return at a distant day, thus: "He will probably return when a regenerated public sentiment shall permit Horace Greeley and himself to be elected to the Senate of the United States."

THE Indianapolis Herald, of the 21st, says: "Since his return from Washington, Governor Morton's health has not been so good as it was throughout the winter. We understand His Excellency has been induced to try the virtues of the Arkansas hot springs, and will leave for that locality to-morrow night."

THE steamship South America sailed from New York on Thursday afternoon for Rio Janeiro, with some two hundred passengers, not a few of whom are understood to be Southern families, who are going out to settle permanently in Brazil.

SENATOR WILSON is understood to be of the opinion that, while he is not prepared to aver that Mr. Kelley was not discreet, if he had been the speaker in Mobile, there would have been no riot.

The Indian Situation.

Colonel McClure, writing from Denver to the New York Tribune, expresses himself a convert to the unanimous opinion of Western men who are acquainted with Indians, that the military expeditions, under Generals Hancock and Augur, are worse than useless; that the government might as well organize an expedition against the moon as send armies to fight Indians by the rules of civilized warfare. Regular soldiers have no butchered wives or children to avenge; know themselves subject to all the atrocities of Indian warfare; and must treat the foe as if he were humane and chivalrous; must stand in rank as targets for a concealed enemy, who is now on his front, now on his rear, burning, pillaging, murdering on the right wing to-day, and to-night on the left, swooping and circling around military expeditions like a hawk around a barnyard hen. In consequence they avoid a fight whenever it is possible, and ranches are burned, men, women and children murdered and cattle driven off, under the guns of our forts. The testimony is fearfully convenient that there can be no peace while the government negotiates with the Indians, and treats their prisoners in accordance with the rules of civilized warfare. The cry of the people is "give us Chevington or Conner." A settler from New York, Hallen Godfrey, defended his little home against the attack of 160 warriors. He had a breastwork of sods. There were five men and ten women in the ranche, each with a gun and plenty of ammunition. They killed 30 of their assailants, and compelled the survivors to leave their dead. The Indians call him "Old Wicked," and his ranche "Fort Wicked." Men of this class will exterminate the Indians in defiance of all the protection government can give them, and military expeditions are simply an expensive farce to keep up the semblance of civilized warfare.

MR. BALFOUR STEWART, in a lecture before the Royal Institute, London, on the sun as a variable star, accounts for the spots on its face by currents of the atmosphere which is estimated as being 72,000 miles deep. The sun revolves on its axis once in 25 days, and this motion produces currents in the atmosphere similar to our trade winds. The approach of Venus and Jupiter also produce changes in these currents and increase or diminish the spots. But these are changes occurring about every ten years, which cannot be thus accounted for.

THE North Carolina Episcopal Convention, lately in session at Wilmington, declared in favor of educating the freedmen, and that the church should receive them "as spiritual teachers and pastors of their race." It was recommended that measures be taken to give practical effect to this policy.

GOVERNOR OGLESBY has called an extra session of the Legislature of Illinois, to convene on the 11th day of June, to provide a law for the taxation of National and State banks, to continue the State agency at Washington, and to provide for meeting other things deemed essential to the public good.

DIAMONDS OF GOLCONDA.—It will be pleasant news to our lady readers to hear, that the celebrated diamond mines of Golconda, in India, so far from being likely to give out—as has been reported—have as yet been only very imperfectly worked. An English officer in the Madras army, who has recently visited these mines—if mines they can be called—says they have hardly yet been worked at all; that most of the diamonds thus far obtained have been found near the surface—the richer sort lying deep in the bowels of the earth, and that the natives having no appliances for digging, beyond a crowbar, seldom excavate below twenty feet in depth, though it is found that the deeper they go the larger and richer, and more abundant the diamonds are found. Besides diamonds, other precious stones are turned out of these holes; as rubies, garnets, opals, catseyes, moonstones, &c.

IT turns out that many of the foreign heathens, Turks, Tunisians, Japanese, Chinese, who form one of the chief attractions of the Paris Exposition, are nothing but Frenchmen in disguise after all, speaking no language but that of the Faubourgs, and having nothing exotic about them but their clothes. This fact came out the other day in an action brought by the manager of a "Chinese" dramatic company against a builder who had failed to have a theater ready for them to play in by the date agreed upon. Nay, it is even said that the Dutch, Russian, and other people who figure in national restaurants in the most fantastic of national dresses, speak French marvelously well, but break down lamentably when they try to use the tongues to which they profess to have been born.

IMMEDIATELY previous to her departure from Europe, May 18, Madame Ristori signed an agreement with Manager Grau to return in the fall to this country. She is to play also in Havana. Fifty thousand francs each were deposited by the contracting parties. Madame presented her carte de visite to Manager Grau, and he presented her with a silk American flag on which was the word "Souvenir." The scene at the steamer must have been truly gratifying to her heart, but painful to her hand, which was shaken most unmercifully—often in the pump handle fashion. Her husband, the Marquis de Grillo, her son George, and her beautiful daughter, shone by her reflected light, and were appreciated accordingly.

THE WORKMEN IN CHICAGO.—Up to Thursday a force of patrolmen had been kept on duty near the Northwestern Railroad Company's machine shops, in order to suppress any demonstration on the part of the strikers. The squad was withdrawn on that day. No sooner had the police disappeared from the scene than about fifty demonstrators appeared, and separating into squads, pounced upon ten or twelve mechanics, when leaving work, and beat them, in some cases very seriously. Before the police could arrive at the scene of trouble, the rowdies had dispersed, and consequently no arrests were made. Several of those who perpetrated the outrage are well known, and will be taken into custody.

THE will case of Mrs. Thwaites, pending in the London Probate Court, has already been referred to in the COMMERCIAL. The contestants declare Mrs. Thwaites to have been insane. She left nearly $2,000,000 to her medical attendant and his brother, to the exclusion of her sister and other relatives. She considered herself to be the Holy Ghost. It has been testified that she always adorned herself with stars and feathers, and that once she bought a tiara of diamonds to be taken up to heaven in. She declared that when she died all creation would cease. The question of her sanity has not yet been decided, and both sides are bringing a great amount of evidence to bear upon it.

A VICTIM OF VENDETTA.—The Nation condoles with Mr. Bancroft in this wise: "We should think he would be glad to go abroad for a brief period, as he is at present remorselessly pursued by grandsons whose ancesters he has assailed, and who are just a little too much for him." It adds by way of hopeful encouragement: "As the historian has only just entered on the revolution, the prospect before him must be admitted to be troublous, particularly as he will, before long, get down among the sons, who are a more powerful and truculent body than the grandsons."

GEN. BUTLER AND THE SURRATTS.—A letter received here from an intimate friend of General Butler says he denies most emphatically that he has been in correspondence on any subject whatever with Miss Anne Surratt, as charged in sundry Copperhead papers. He would probably have acted as one of the counsel for her brother if asked to do so, but never offered his services, or intimated that he would like to be retained.

A WASHINGTON dispatch says, gentlemen who saw Thad. Stevens last week, report that he thinks there will not and should not be a July session of Congress, unless the articles of impeachment are to be brought forward. Of this there does not now appear to be any probability.

ROHRER'S EXPECTORAL

WILD CHERRY TONIC.

Originally this tonic was largely used in Switzerland—as early as 1700—with great success, and subsequently brought to America by Dr. JOHN JACOB ROHRER, who emigrated in 1732. He used it as an infallible remedy for the following complaints in this country: Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats, Aphonia or Loss of Voice, Laryngitis, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Pulmonary Phthisis or Consumption, Pneumothorax, Emphysema of the Lungs, Palpitation of the Heart, and Atrophy of the Heart. Diseases of the Stomach and Intestines, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diarrhea, Dysentery and Piles. Diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, Abscesses of the Liver, Deficient and Augmented Secretion of Bile, Inflammation of the Kidneys and Bladder. Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Typhoid and Typhus Fever. It is a certain and sure preventive and cure for Asiatic Cholera. It eradicates all Pustular Diseases of the Skin, and as a Blood Purifier there is no compound to compete with it. For diseases of Females in weakness and prostration, Chlorosis or Green Sickness, to which young females are liable, and in weakness and general debility, there is no Tonic like it. This Tonic will cure and alleviate all morbid affections the human system is liable to. Try it? It will speak for itself when once given a fair trial, its great remedial powers never fail. It is a purely vegetable mixture, selected strictly from among the best Roots and Herbs in the ancient and modern Materia Medica.

The Western Crop Prospect.

The Chicago Republican contains reports from Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Iowa, concerning the crops, the substance of which it states as follows:

From the winter wheat regions, the accounts are not as favorable as in relation to spring wheat, which are generally hopeful. The cold, wet weather has retarded planting in some sections, and rotted it when planted in others. Small spring grain generally looks well. Fruit prospects are almost uniformly good. As a whole, the condition of the crops is in no wise discouraging to the agriculturist. On the contrary, the prospects of a bountiful harvest are as good as usual at this season of the year.

WEATHER in England has been very warm. The thermometer in London stood 90 and 93 degrees on May 11, and green peas and asparagus were plenty. It is the accounts of May in England, written by her poets, which makes Americans always expect fine weather in May, and spend that most disagreeable of all the year in a "thirty-one-day" disappointment.

FILES! FILES!
THE AUBURN FILE WORKS
AUBURN, NEW YORK,
Would call the attention of manufacturers and those using Files and Rasps to the superior article of HAND CUT FILES, which they are now making from the best quality of Cast Steel, consisting of Flat, Hand, Mill, Saw, Round, Half Round, Square, Taper Saw Files, Horse Rasps, and all other kinds, which are in no respect inferior to any now made.
It accords neither with our taste or our principle to assert that our Files have never been approached by any other manufacturer. The Files must speak for themselves, and those who wish to purchase largely are sufficiently wise to accept the evidence of the files rather than the assertion of the manufacturers.
Your orders may be left with T. H. RICHARDS, Esq., 30 Fifth street, Pittsburgh, where samples of some of the principal kinds may be examined and prices obtained. Your orders will be carefully executed at the manufactory, and warranted to give satisfaction or Files returned.
We have permission to refer to the Pittsburgh Novelty Works, who are now using our work to their entire satisfaction. Under date of November 28, 1867, they say:
"The files give general satisfaction in regard to temper and cut. The only objection we find is, they are cut too fine for our use. A coarser cut would suit us better. Please remember this when we send another order."
Also of May 6th, 1867, enclosing draft for $183 73.
"Your Files give satisfaction, and you have permission to use our name in regard to their quality."
Please call and examine samples before placing your orders.

Further Home Testimony.
MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS,
Read the following indubitable proof of the great virtue of MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS. Captain James Gallegher is personally known to hundreds of Pittsburgh citizens:
PITTSBURGH, PA., May 7, 1867.
MESSRS. FAHNESTOCK & HOLTON:
Gentlemen—I regard Dr. Mishler as a benefactor of his race. Great men have been raised up from time to time in different ages to bless the world with their skilled genius. How incalculable is the good which many men have almost unconsciously wrought in the world. Dr. Mishler is a hero of this class. His Herb Bitters were accidentally brought to my notice and by their use I have been restored to perfect health. For years I was a victim to the Dyspepsia in its worst form, and was compelled to retire from my business. My health failed so rapidly that I was given over by my physicians. One recommended me to take a tour to California. I did so, but derived no benefit. I had tried, as I thought, every dyspepsia medicine of reputation, and without success. My health still failed, and I became convinced that my days on earth would soon terminate. But Dr. Mishler's Herb Bitters were brought to my notice. I had no faith in them nor anything else. Still, to satisfy friends, I consented to try them. I very shortly began to feel far more improved in health and spirits than I had in years before. I continued to use them regularly, my hope revived, and I gradually recovered. I am to-day as well, strong and hale as I was fifteen years ago, and as I have used no other medicine, I attribute my restoration to Mishler's Herb Bitters. I furnish you with this testimony voluntarily, for I deem it due to you that my fellow citizens should know the great virtue of Mishler's Herb Bitters. I am, gentlemen, your obedient servant,
TTHS JAMES GALLEGHER.

The Daily Commercial

THE RIVER.

Your life and mine, O constant Heart, are braided
Like two streams into one;
We flow along—and now our banks are shaded,
And now bloom in the sun.

For miles I wandered through the placid meadow
While stretching to the sky;
In me the wild flower watched his painted shadow,
In me the cloud on high.

But you on the great hillside freshly bubbled,
By secret sluices sent
From some deep source in the rock's heart untroubled,
Where sunbeam never bent.

Into the glad, free ether you came leaping;
The sunshine heard your tone,
And o'er the crested spur your wild way sweeping,
It made you all its own.

Sunshine, or streamlet, or the fleece of heaven,
The valleys upward creep,
Till your far voice beneath the starry seven
Falls singing them to sleep.

Still o'er the lofty ledges lightly dashing,
The echoes cry your way,
The morning radiance in your trail is flashing,
Wild roses catch your spray.

All noontide luster and all rarest fragrance
About you brood and blow;—
The late chill moonbeams come like pallid vagrants
To reach earth swifter so.

By night, a shining thread of music flowing
Along the clear dark sky—
The stars above you, sparkling, dipping, going—
Dreams floating down your sigh.

By day and night, to your advancing murmur
The crystal in his niche
Gather, the sapping drinks of you, and firmer
Plants him and grows more rich.

The plains, below, a royal sward are keeping
For your white feet to chide,
A joyous brook, that, out of heaven leaping,
Comes wandering to my side.

Two seasons, catching sunshine in our shallows,
Green glooming o'er our deeps,
We wind, where under lee of fertile fallows
Perpetual summer sleeps.

Upon our trace we fling a foam of blossom,
The showers trend down our way,
The sacred azure darkens in our bosom,
The landscapes toward its sway.

Deeper the channel wears, and ever broader
From the exhaustless wells
The rythmic tides, in their mysterious order,
Slide on slow silvery swells.

A gracious stream whose banks are set with blessing,
That under tranquil skies
And into claims of golden sunset pressing,
On the horizon dies.

Or drawn to seek the gray and wondrous fountains
Far sounding, shall it be
A river rushing between mighty mountains
We burst upon the sea?

The hoary and illimitable ocean
That darkly to and fro
Rocks the vast volumes of its central motion
Where no wind dares to blow:

O life my own, let not that awful swinging
Sunder us far apart,
But the eternities confess our clinging,
And pulse us heart to heart!

—Atlantic for March.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

A farmer in New York willed his daughter four thousand dollars, on condition that she would marry a Catholic clergyman. As Catholic clergymen do not marry, the daughter endeavors to break the will. The defense is that the old man didn't mean she should have any of the property, and took this way of saying so.

An enterprise is on foot to erect a stage on Central Park, which is to be known as the "Theater of Flowers." It is to be finished by the first of July, and will contain four thousand seats. There will be a day and a night performance, except Sundays. An enormous tent will protect the spectators from the sun during the day, and the humidity at night. Pantomimes and ballets will be performed on this floral stage, and some popular artists will give musical interludes.

Southern correspondents aver that improved culture of the soil encounters, as might be expected, obstinate prejudice on the part of the negroes. Deep ploughing, they say, "kills the land." Concentrated chemical fertilizers, applied by mere handfuls, are "no account," and nothing but close personal attention from the manager can secure their being really employed.

Wisconsin was governed by the King of France ninety-three years; by the King of Great Britain twenty years; by the State of Virginia one year; by the territory of Ohio sixteen years; by Indiana territory nine years, and by Michigan territory eighteen years. She continued a territory of the United States nearly twelve years, when on the 13th of March, 1848, she became the thirtieth State of the Union.

England makes but a small show in the cutlery department at the Paris Exposition, and Sheffield is particularly mortified. Even the Turks and barbarians excel them in the number and beauty of their contributions.

We knew that the old story would be started at last, that "the young peaches in Delaware, along the bay shore, where some of the best orchards are situated, have suffered severely from recent frosts, and will not yield more than a quarter crop."

A young lady residing in the vicinity of Brooklyn complains that she became so interested in a young man who visited her, that while in his society she lost her diamond ring and found a brass one on her finger instead—and adds, "that if the ring is returned she will ask no questions."

A New York correspondent gives an account of two children, a boy of seventeen, and a girl of fourteen, who ran off, some years ago, and were married. The parents came upon the scene just as the ceremony was concluded, took them away and sent them to school. Parents belonged to the upper tens, and the young lady was taken to Paris to finish her education. School days over, she was introduced into society, at eighteen, declined the attentions of many beaux, attracted by her beauty and fortune; came home and married her own husband. Who will not wish them a long, a happy life!

PERSONAL.

—The Boston correspondent of the New York Evening Post says that General Butler will not probably make any public speeches this Summer, although he has received nearly four hundred invitations to lecture, from all parts of the country.

—Information has been received in Washington from Ohio to the effect that Gen. Schenck has intimated that if the nomination of Governor of the State was offered him, he would resign his seat in Congress and accept. If this be true, the nomination will surely be given him.

—Professor Bartt, who accompanied Professor Agassiz in his expedition to Brazil, now proposes to lead another for the exploration of the coast of that country, and has asked the co-operation of the Natural History Society of New York in the undertaking.

—Dr. O. W. Holmes receives a severe castigation at the hands of the Boston Recorder, which declares that his course toward the orthodox clergy, in his new novel, is tending to "destroy the confidence of the younger members of their flocks in their sincerity, and thus weakening this influence for good."

—In Paris, an exhibition of furniture and objects of art, having belonged to Marie Antoinette, is announced, under the presidency of the Empress. The Trianon has been admirably chosen for the scene where, through the agency of pale brocaded silks, and still paler shepherdesses on tapestry chairs, amid vestiges of Versailles brilliance and Trianon simplicity, will rise up the souvenirs of the beautiful Austrian.

—Abbott's astounding apotheosis of the Emperor has been done into French, and the Siecle suggests that its reverend author be straightway put up in the American department of the Exposition and labelled "the learned ass," a designation to which, the adjective excepted, nobody would demur.

—If J. Wilkes Booth is still living, as some persons assert, a statement in "Gen." Lafayette C. Baker's history of the secret service is not quite reliable. A letter in a New Orleans paper says that Booth is alive and well, and that five persons who know him well know where he is. Baker also says in his book that Booth's remains were interred in the Old Penitentiary grounds on the Potomac. Baker says that the body was thoroughly identified as that of Booth before it was interred. He knew Booth in Washington, and as he brought the body from Acquia Creek, he certainly ought to know whether it was Booth's or not. Besides, Booth's diary has just been published, and this gives fresh strength to the belief that it was J. Wilkes Booth, and no other, who was shot in the barn near Bowling Green. It may be added that Booth's family regard the reports now circulating about him as sheer fabrications, and have not the least doubt of his death.

—Ferdinand Freiligrath, the great German poet, since the failure of the revolution of 1848 has been in exile in England, where, until recently, he has received an adequate income as a director of the Swiss Bank of London, which no longer exists. Under these circumstances Germans at home and abroad are honoring alike themselves and their patriotic poet, by an endeavor to provide him with the means of abandoning distasteful business pursuits, and returning for the remainder of his life to literary occupations.

—Carl Benson writes to the Round Table to say that a residence of several years in Paris, and a pretty careful study of French morals, manners, and literature, will be likely to convince a stranger that the much-wanted Napoleonic legislation is, in two of the most important classes of laws, those relating to marriage and inheritance, very nearly as bad as can be.

—Rev. Robert Collyer, in his recent lecture, stated that he carried a hod one week in this country rather than run in debt. He confessed to having, at the expiration of this short term of service, more bumps on his head than Mr. Fowler ever dreampt about.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PITTSBURGH, PA., (late Pittsburgh Trust Company,) Capital 500,000, paid in, with privilege to increase to $1,000,000.
The Pittsburgh Trust Company having organized under the Act to provide a National Currency, under the title of the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PITTSBURGH, would respectfully offer its services for the collection of Notes, Drafts, Bills of Exchange, &c.; receive money on deposit, and buy and sell Exchange on all parts of the country.
The success which has attended the Pittsburgh Trust Company since its organization in 1852, will, we believe, be a sufficient guarantee that business entrusted to the new organization will receive the same prompt attention.
Having a very extensive correspondence with Banks and Bankers throughout the country, we believe we can offer unusual facilities to those who do business with us.
The business will be conducted by the same officers and directors.

CITY MATTERS.

PERSONAL.—The Rev. Prof. Samuel J. Wilson, D. D., Pastor of the Sixth Presbyterian Church, of this city, has returned from New York. He visited that city as a delegate to a Religious Convention.

BANNER PRESENTATION.—A beautiful banner is to be presented to the German Singing Society, known as the "Harmony," at the Iron City Park, Lawrenceville, on Thursday. The device on the banner is a wreath woven in almost every color of silk thread. The banner is really handsome.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—An unsuccessful attempt was made by burglars on Sunday night to enter the residence of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Kerfoot, No. 119 Penn street. The thieves succeeded in forcing open the shutters of a window in the rear part of the house, but the noise occasioned by raising the window aroused some of the members of the family, and the robbers fled precipitately, without having affected an entrance.

OFF FOR EUROPE.—We learn that Joseph G. Siebeneck, Esq., one of the editors and proprietors of the Evening Chronicle, of this city, sails for Europe on Saturday, per United States mail steamship Atlantic, via Southampton. Mr. Siebeneck will visit Dieppe, Rome and Paris, and go thence to Germany on a visit to his relatives, who reside in a populous little town on the Rhine, about eighteen miles from Bingen. He will be absent until September.

ASSAULTING A TRAIN.—For some time past, almost every night, the Emigrant train on the Pennsylvania Railroad was assaulted with stones whilst approaching Carr's Tunnel, near George's Station, a few miles east of Greensburg, Westmoreland county. On one or two occasions stones have gone through the windows. On Friday night last a special watch was set for the miscreant guilty of the outrage, and after a stone was thrown into the Pilot House of the Engine, the train was at once stopped, and the detective succeeded in arresting a lad named W. Milton, living near by, who was taken before Justice R. W. Singer, at Greensburg, when he at once acknowledged his guilt of the many acts committed in that vicinity, and was held over for his appearance at the next court. The offense, according to a late act, is a penitentiary one.

Boy Found Drowned.

Yesterday morning about half-past six o'clock, two gentlemen found the body of a boy floating in the Allegheny river, among some timber rafts lying near the Point Saw Mill, in the First Ward, Allegheny. The body was taken out of the river, and Coroner Clawson summoned to hold an inquest. No clue was obtained as to the identity of the body, and the jury rendered a verdict of "found drowned." The deceased was apparently about twelve years of age. He had on a black and white checked flannel shirt, brown pantaloons and leather suspenders. In the pantaloons pockets were found two marbles, a spool and a little wrench for spinning a top. From the appearance of the body, it is supposed to have been in the water about two weeks. It was considerably swollen, the skin being peeled from the limbs in many places. Several cuts were upon the head, which were probably made by striking against the timber in the river.

Exciting Scull Race on the Allegheny.

A very exciting sculling race came off on the Allegheny river, in the vicinity of Logan's Ferry, about fourteen miles from this city, last Saturday afternoon, between William Evans, of Jefferson County, Pa., and T. M. Confer, of Springdale, Allegheny County. The race was for a purse of three hundred dollars, the distance being two and a half miles. Messrs. J. Elder and Ezekiel Reese, were selected as judges, who chose Mr. H. O. Jack as referee. The contestants left the starting point at Logan's Ferry, about three o'clock, rowed down the river a distance of one mile and a quarter, and returned to the starting point. Evans reached the starting point about a boat's length ahead of his competitor, and was declared the winner. The time made was twenty-seven minutes and six seconds. Those who witnessed the race, speak in the highest terms of young Confer's rowing, who is but sixteen years of age, and assert that had he not made so wide a turn at the buoy, he would have won the race. As it was, he reached the buoy boat first, and rapidly lessened the distance occasioned by the delay in making the turn. The river, at the time of the race, was also quite rough, which operated against the oarsmen, who pulled in common row boats.

No. 69. Wm. Irwin vs. John Wilson et. al.
No. 70. Union Skating Park Company vs. John Kerwin et al.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—Before Judge Sterrett.

The case of Catharine Negley vs. James McCully, J. B. Lyon and Wm. Macrum, commenced on Friday, being an action in ejectment for a tract of land in Collins township, occupied the attention of the Court yesterday, and has not yet been concluded.

In the matter of the appeal to the Register's Court of the will of Mr. James Dain, deceased, alluded to in the COMMERCIAL yesterday, an error was made in stating that a caveat had been filed in the Register's office before the will had been probated, and that the admission of the will to probate before the Register had been opposed by Mr. James K. Dain, one of the sons of the deceased.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Judge Hampton.

Robert McClintock vs. Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company. Aciton on a plea of trespass. The plaintiff, who is the owner of a brick house and premises in Ohio township, alleges that the Railroad Company erected a culvert to support the bed of their road over a small run, near to and adjoining his residence, and it not being large enough to give a free outlet to all the water in times of heavy rains, the plaintiff's property was overflowed and damaged to the amount of $2,000. Two suits have been instituted by plaintiff against the Company, and they are being tried together. The case had not been concluded at adjournment.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

[Before Mayor Morrison, of Allegheny.]

FELONIOUS ASSAULT.

Michael Sheets appeared at the Allegheny Mayor's office yesterday, and instituted suit against John Loudon for felonious assault and assault and battery. Deponent alleges that Loudon came to his house in the First ward, Allegheny, on Sunday, and committed an assault on him, choking him severely, and then drew a pistol on him, threatening to shoot him. The accused was arrested and held in five hundred dollars bail to answer.

[Before Alderman Neillie, of Allegheny.]

ALLEGED LARCENY.

John Loudon, the party who was before Mayor Morrison, then made information before this Alderman against Michael Sheets, charging him with the larceny of a gold sleeve button from him, on Troy Hill, on Sunday. A warrant was issued.

[Before Alderman Mullin, of Allegheny.]

LARCENY AS BAILEE.

Mr. C. C. Harbaugh, photographer, appeared yesterday and lodged an information for larceny as bailee, against Christian Falmouth, of the firm of Root & Co., photographers at Cincinnati. Mr. Harbaugh states that defendant obtained from him photographic "waste" to the value of eighty dollars, last December, for the purpose of refining it, promising to return it refined in a few days. He has failed to fulfil his promise, and has not yet returned the "waste." He was held to bail for a hearing.

BREACH OF THE PEACE.

Catharine Hanman lodged complaint against Ann McGrarity for breach of the peace. The parties live in the Third ward, Allegheny, and Ann is accused of having acted very disorderly, disturbing the public peace, and also threatening Catharine with violence. The accused was arrested, but the case was amicably settled.

Wm. Panghner and Thomas Hill were charged with breach of the peace, on oath of Rachael Lane. The prosecutrix alleges that the defendants came to her house in the Third Ward, demanded admittance, and upon being refused, commenced acting in a very disorderly and boisterous manner, and threatening her with undue violence. They were arrested, and entered bail to appear for a hearing.

[Before Alderman Humbert.]

QUARREL BETWEEN PUDLERS.

Henry Jacob, of South Pittsburgh, appeared yesterday and made information against Tim Doyle, of Birmingham, for assault and battery and surety of the peace. The parties are pudlers. It appears that they were rowing across the Monongahela river in skiffs, on Saturday, when a quarrel arose about their going to work, one accusing the other of working under the regular rates. The other denied this, when, it is alleged, Doyle struck Jacob a severe blow on the face with his fist, and then threatened to throw him into the river. Warrants were issued.

[Before Alderman Strain.]

QUARREL AMONG MILL HANDS.

M. A. Ketler and Wm. Wiebel each appeared before this magistrate yesterday, and lodged information against John Debold and Joseph Debold (brothers,) charging them with aggravated assault and battery. The prosecutor in each case alleges that on the 16th inst., the defendants attacked him without any just cause or provocation, knocked him down, kicked him badly, and beat him in an outrageous manner.

Wm. L. Ketler also lodged information against John Debold, charging him with aggravated assault and battery and attempted mayhem. Deponent alleges that defendent attacked him, knocked him down, and beat and abused him in an outrageous manner, and bit his hand and finger, producing a painful wound. Warrants were issued for the arrest of the accused.

The parties concerned in these charges all reside on Girty's Run, in Duquesne Borough. The suits grew out of a quarrel about wages, the Debolds, who are on a "strike," accusing the prosecutors, who are employed at Graff, Bennett & Co.'s rolling mill, of having gone to work at less than the regular rates.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY CASES.

Simon Fermer lodged complaint against Jack Crow, Captain of the towboat Fairplay, with assault and battery. Fermer was employed as deck hand on the boat, and the defendant is charged with having assaulted him, and knocked him down. A warrant was issued.

Henry Boucher made oath charging three men named J. B. Harshaw, Chas. E. Harshaw and W. H. Bowman, with assault and battery. Mr. Boucher states that as he was passing along Smithfield street, he heard a disturbance in the hall of a house, and opening the door of a house to ascertain what it was, he was attacked by the defendants, who knocked him down, kicked him and otherwise abused him. The accused were arrested and held in three hundred dollars bail for a hearing to-morrow.

[Before Alderman McMasters.]

SELLING STOLEN PROPERTY.

Henry Panhorst was arrested yesterday on a charge of selling stolen property, on oath of Frank Luther. It appears that last fall a barge was stolen from a man at Oil City. The raft came in the possession of Panhorst, from whom it was purchased by Mr. Luther, who did not know it had been stolen. The owner of the barge afterwards prosecuted Mr. Luther for having stolen property in his possession. The latter accordingly appeared yesterday, and made information against Panhorst for selling stolen property. The legality of the charge was denied by the defendant's counsel, and the case was taken before Judge Sterrett yesterday afternoon, who released the defendant on his own recognizance, until nine o'clock this morning, when the matter will be argued in Court.

BREACH OF THE PEACE.

Joshua Lee charged Cyrus Ball with breach of the peace, in threatening to kill him and raising a disturbance. Ball was arrested and held in three hundred dollars bail to keep the peace.

[Before Alderman Lynch.]

BOROUGH OFFICIALS IN TROUBLE.

Thomas Ford appeared yesterday and made informations for assault and battery against Louis Aurin, Burgess of West Pittsburgh, Philip Haas, Constable, and Cormick McGrady, a resident of that borough. Burgess Aurin, keeps a tavern in West Pittsburgh, and Ford alleges that he went into the tavern on Friday to get something to drink, when he was attacked by the Burgess, who caught him violently and kicked him out of the tavern. He alleges that he was then attacked by Constable Haas, who struck him on the eye and knocked him down, without any provocation whatever. He recovered himself and was proceeding home, when he was attacked by McGrady, who also knocked him down. Haas and McGrady were arrested, waived a hearing and entered bail for trial. Aurin has not yet been arrested.

[Before Justice Ammon, of East Birmingham.]

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

John Harris, charged on oath of Henry Feldman with assault and battery, had a hearing yesterday, and was held to bail.

Johanna Kunkle made information against Martin Biggin alias Rogan, charging him with assault and battery. The defendant was taken before the Justice and the case was afterwards settled, and the defendant discharged on the payment of costs.

RELEASES FROM JAIL.

The following persons were released yesterday from the county jail on bail: Celia Burns, committed by Deputy Mayor Owston, for assault and battery; Geo. Crawford, committed on Saturday by Alderman Morrow, for the same offense; Evan Rees, committed on Saturday by Alderman Thomas, for wife desertion; Martin Rogan, committed on the 15th of April, for assault and battery, by Justice Ammon, of East Birmingham.

Meeting of City Councils.

A regular monthly meeting of the City Councils was held last evening.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The following members were present: Messrs. Wm. Barnhill, J. M. Brush, I. N. Cousin, W. R. Ford, J. H. Hare, J. Hemphill, E. Hoise, W. D. Jones, J. Mawhinney, A. B. McQuewan, D. McClelland, R. J. McGowan, D. O'Neill, J. R. Reed, R. Robb, P. Seibert, T. S. Sloan, W. A. Tomlinson, J. J. Torley, J. Verner, T. W. Welsh, and T. Steel' President.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The President read a communication from Gen. James S. Negley, tendering Council an invitation to attend the formal opening of the Monumental Fair at City Hall, on Tuesday evening. The communication was received and the invitation accepted.

Also, a communication from the City Controller, enclosing a bill from A. Murdock, Esq., late U. S. Marshal for this District, for costs, amounting to $599. The communication was accepted, and the bill referred to the Finance Committee, with power to act.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Hare offered a resolution providing for the removal of the fire plug on the corner of Fifth and Grant streets, east of Fifth. Referred to Committee on Water.

On motion the Clerk was instructed to notify Select Council that the Common Council desired a joint session.

Mr. Ford offering a resolution, instructing the Committee on City Property to have a new roof placed on the Independence Engine House. Referred to Committee on City Property.

Mr. Hare presented bill of Mackin & McCabe, for $278.94, for crossings laid down by them on Pennsylvania Avenue and Logan streets, and moved that the sum be paid from appropriation No. 13. Adopted.

MONUMENTAL FAIR.

The President stated that he had just been informed that the Select branch had adjourned. The Common Council had desired to meet with them in joint session, in order to make arrangements for attending the opening of the Monumental Fair, and he thought that such action was ungenerous, particularly as the Common branch had continued its session for over an hour after its business had been concluded.

Mr. Hare moved that Common Council meet at its chamber this evening at 7½ o'clock, and proceed in a body to the Monumental Fair. Adopted.

Council then adjourned.

SELECT COUNCIL.

Members present: Messrs. Armstrong, Brown, Crawford, Gallaher, Loew, McCarthy, McEwen, McMillan, Morrow, Phillips, Shipton, Thompson, White and President McAuley.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The President submitted a communication from Gen. J. S. Negley, President of the Monumental Association, setting forth that the Ladies' Monumental Fair will be opened with appropriate ceremonies on Tuesday evening, and inviting the members of Councils to be present. The communication was received and filed.

Also, a communication from Mrs. Samuel McKee on behalf of the Executive Committee of the Soldiers' Monumental Association, notifying Councils of the withdrawal of the application asking permission for the firemen to collect funds to compete for the prize hose carriage. The communication states that the Committee was not aware that the request was in contravention of a city ordinance or it would not have been made. The communication was accepted, and the thanks of Councils tendered the ladies for the communication.

A petition was presented for the vacation of Vickroy street, which was referred to the Committee on Streets.

A communication from Joseph Hastings, relative to a fine under the city ordinances for neglecting to construct a bridge over a vault. Referred to Street Committee. In Common Council laid on the table.

A communication from the City Solicitor, relative to a deed of J. J. Siebeneck and wife to a strip of ground on Pennsylvania avenue, and recommending that the amount of the assessment due to Peter O'Neal ($153 52) be paid. A resolution for the payment of the bill was read three times and passed.

A bill from Henry Snively, Esq., County Recorder, for $33 60, for recording ordinances, was read, and the Controller authorized to certify his warrant for the amount.

A petition for water pipe on Miltenberger street, from St. Patrick's alley to Forbes street, was read and referred to Water Committee.

PETITIONS.

A petition from Edward Allen, asking Councils for payment of the balance due on his contract for building a sewer on Carson street, in the Ninth ward, was referred to Finance Committee.

RESOLUTIONS,

A resolution authorizing a warrant in favor of Niagara Steam Fire Company for $1,000 for repairs to engine house. Read three times and passed.

A resolution providing for the erection of a public gas lamp on the corner of Factory and Etna streets, was read and referred to Committee on Gas.

ORDINANCES.

An ordinance to extend the Wood and Fifth street sewer to the Monongahela river, was read three times and passed finally.

An ordinance for the grading and paving of Greenup street. Read three times and laid over under the rules.

An ordinance prohibiting the tapping of public sewers for private purposes without a permit from the Recording Regulator, under a penalty of fifty dollars, was read three times and passed.

Ordinances for the grading and paving of Greenough street from Try to Second; Lumber street, from Penn to Mulberry alley; Carson street, from Penn to Mulberry alley; and Allegheny street, from Penn to Mulberry alley, were read and laid over under the rules.

A resolution, appointing a Sanitary Committee, passed in C. C. at last meeting, was taken up, and the action of C. C. concurred in. Messrs. Gallaher and Morrow were appointed members of the committee on part of S. C.

A communication from Wm. Rinehart, stating that he had been assessed for damages for improvements on High street and not having received sufficient notice desires to be relieved from the payment of costs on suit. Referred to Street Committee.

On motion adjourned.

Base Ball Match.

A match game of Base Ball was played at Shady Side, between the Energetic and Hawthorne Base Ball Clubs, which resulted in favor of the former. Annexed you will find the score:

NIGHT ACCOMMODATION TRAIN PA. R. R.—By special request of the citizens living along the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, the night accommodation train leaving at 10:50, will not leave the depot until the close of the performance at the Academy of Music, at which Mr. Murdoch is now playing, should the play, in which he takes part, not be concluded at the regular starting hour. On Wednesday evening, when Hamlet is played, the Managers of the Academy will have the performance commence promptly on time, and by having less time between the acts, will have the conclusion by eleven P. M. at the latest, so that persons living along the road can witness the whole rendition of this difficult character by Mr. Murdoch. The same arrangement will continue during the engagement of the great actress, Mrs. Gen. Lander, familiarly known as Miss Davenport, which commences next week.

CENTRAL FIRE BELL.—The large bell connected with the Fire Alarm Telegraph, will strike the following hours on and after to-day: Twelve M., three P. M., six P. M., nine P. M., twelve midnight, three A. M., six A. M., and nine A. M.

Public Amusements.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Mr. Murdoch will this evening resume his dramatic representations at this first-class establishment. The play to-night will be "The Gamester," Mr. Murdoch personating "Beverly." The remaining characters are in good hands and an agreeable performance throughout may be safely anticipated.

OPERA HOUSE.—The "Black Crook" will be presented this evening for the twenty-second time. A large audience was in attendance last night, and the play was well received.

PITTSBURGH THEATER.—Charlie White's Combination Troupe conclude their engagement to-night which has not proved as successful as it should, and otherwise would, had it not been for the "Black Crook" and other attractions.

VARIETIES.—No matter how great the attraction elsewhere, the Varieties always retains its popularity and has good audiences. Manager Myers gives a good entertainment, and the public appreciate it.

BE ON YOUR GUARD against the imitations and counterfeits of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, with which the PIRATES who make a DISHONORABLE LIVING, by preying upon the sick and suffering, are now endeavoring to flood the markets of this country. Whenever these POISON-MONGERS are discovered they are immediately prosecuted by the proprietors, who expend thousands of dollars annually in tracing them out and bringing them to justice. Within a short time injunctions have been obtained in the Courts of the United States against a number of individuals and firms, and suits are now in progress against several others, all of whose names will be given to the public. But in spite of the utmost vigilance and activity of their detective agents, the undersigned are, of course, unable to protect the public entirely against piratical imitations of a Standard National Tonic, everywhere in request, and as readily convertible into cash as United States Bonds or Treasury Notes. They, therefore, as a MEASURE OF PRECAUTION, direct attention to the fact that a finely engraved label, representing St. George and the Dragon, and a beautiful proprietary stamp bearing the official endorsement of the Government, appear on every bottle of the genuine BITTERS. The article is further authenticated by a miniature note of hand, with the signature of "Hostetter & Smith," to counterfeit which is a state prison crime. The true BITTERS are sold in bottles only, and never in bulk. HOSTETTER & SMITH.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

MONDAY EVENING, May 27th, 1867.

Ever since the reaction from high prices set in, several months since, commercial depression began, which has steadily won its way until the present spring, when such an entire stagnation and profitless trade has rarely been known within the memory of the oldest merchant. The spring trade is nearly over, and there are large stocks in the stores of eastern wholesale dealers which cannot be sold at any concession hardly to purchasers. But notwithstanding this lethargy and the general distrust prevailing, there are scarcely any failures in this community, and business men are now in better shape to meet all coming obstacles than they have been for the past two or three years. Very few bills go to protest. Our notaries report business as very dull. For some time past merchants have been contracting and bringing their business more within their immediate control. The present condition of affairs had been anticipated, and pretty well prepared for by carrying small stocks and curtailing credits. The wild spirit of speculation has been checked to a great extent, and possessions have not been hazarded in operations of a doubtful character, but the disposition is to hold on to what has been got rather than aspire to greater possessions. There has been a good deal of money lost compared to what has been made, but no evidence of extensive insolvency. Our business men during the past four or five years have accumulated large profits and added immensely to their wealth, and they are in a condition to bear the heavy shrinkage in fixed values without the fear of being lead into insolvency. Much of their accumulated wealth has been loaned to the government in the purchase of bonds, which can readily be converted into cash on the revival of business.

—Belding, Keith & Co.'s London Circular, received to-day at this office, reports a more favorable tone existing in financial circles. It says, under date of London, May 11th: "Yesterday, the 10th of May, was the anniversary of the commencement of the great panic of 1866. That fatal period was inaugurated by the suspension of Overend, Gurney & Co. (Limited), and the twelve months of disaster and anxiety since experienced will be long remembered by those who have passed through the principal phases of the late severe crisis. Happily there appears to be a turn in affairs, which, after the threatening aspect of domestic and foreign political relations, would induce us to look forward to the steady growth of our commercial and financial prosperity. If we can surmount the distrust occasioned by the recent railway revelations, cheap rates for money, and an encouraging season for the crops, should greatly assist to restore confidence. Certain it is that a healthier tone has prevailed in all the markets generally during the past week. The market for American securities has been active all through the week, and yesterday great buoyancy prevailed, 5-20 bonds establishing a further rise of nearly 1 per cent. on our last quotations, which, allowing for the deduction on account of dividend, is the highest yet attained on our market. Eries and Illinois shares have also advanced ½ per cent. each, with a firm market at present. Atlantic and Great Western debentures are last quoted 32 to 34, and the consolidated mortgage bonds 21 to 22."

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, MONDAY EVENING, May 27, 1867.

The business transacted, to-day, was similar to that of last week, dull and sluggish in nearly all departments of trade, but if we can judge, from the reports of other commercial cities, we are doing as much, if not more, than they are. The flour market continues fairly active at last quotations. There was more doing in groceries—orders were received to quite an amount, compared with last week. The provision trade continues moderately active. Other staple articles remain without any change worthy of note.

The receipts of some of the leading articles of produce, per river and rail, since our last, were as follows: Flour 1,894 bbls; apples 17 barrels; cheese 122 boxes; corn 1,846 sacks; barley 23 sacks; wheat 150 sacks; oats 1,343 sacks; butter 42 packages, and bulk meats 7,361 pieces.

We quote as follows, which are the wholesale prices, unless otherwise stated:

APPLES—Choice green apples are getting very scarce, and we quote them selling readily from store at $7 50@8 50 ₩ bbl.

ASHES—We quote Pearls at 11c: Soda ash at 5¼c; and pot ash at 8¼c ₩ lb.

BEANS—Prime qualities of small white beans are scarce and meet with ready sales, from store, at $3 00 ₩ bushel.

BUTTER—Market continues dull, as the receipts of fresh roll are in excess of the demand. We quote sales of 800 lbs. choice butter, per express, at 18c ₩ lb. We quote prices nominally firm; 15@20c ₩ lb.

CHEESE—We note sales of 10 boxes Goshen at 20c ₩ lb, and 28 boxes new W. R. Cheese, at 14@16c ₩ lb, mostly at the latter figure.

DRIED FRUITS—The stock on the market is more than adequate to supply the demand, and prices are nominally 7½@9½c for apples, and from 12 to 18c for peaches, as to quality and quantity purchased.

EGGS—The receipts have been more liberal, and prices have drooped a trifle. We note sales from store of 25 bbls. at 18c, and 10 bbls. at 19c ₩ dozen.

FLOUR—The market continues active, and there is a better feeling among dealers. Although there was a decline of 50c ₩ bbl during last week, the prices to-day remain the same as those given in this morning's paper. We quote the following reliable brands; Dayton Snow Flake, $15 75; Jenkins's Eureka, ex. winter, $15 50; Jenkins's Lilly, choice, $15@15 25; Desplajne's and Sears's best, $14 50@14 65; Ford's and Crosett's, $14 50@14 75, and Dayton, Phenix and Northwestern, $13 50 ₩ bbl. Rye flour is quoted at $9 50@10 ₩ bbl. Corn meal sells at $1 15@1 20 ₩ bushel.

GRAIN—There is no city trade doing in Wheat, and prices are nominal.

CORN—The market was somewhat firmer to-day, holders were selling on the spot and none shipping on account. Sales ranged from $1 00@1 05 ₩ bush, in lots.

OATS—The demand is good. Sales are reported of 500 bushels on the track at 71c, and 100 bushels from store at 72c ₩ bushel. We hear of an offer being made for 7,000 bushels, delivered on the wharf, at 68c and buyer to furnish sacks.

RYE—The market is firm at $1 70 ₩ bush to dealer's hands.

PROVISIONS—Market unchanged from the quotations given for several days past, and for city cured meats there is a brisk demand.

POTATOES—The receipts are light and prices have advanced considerably. We note sales of peach blow potatoes at $3 50@3 75 ₩ bbl; 100 bush reds from store at $1 10 ₩ bush, and Buckeyes at $4 25 ₩ bbl.

RADISHES—We note sales of 5 bbls radishes at 50c ₩ dozen bunches.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, TUESDAY, May 28, 1867.

Business yesterday was devoid of activity; dullness was the ruling feature of the market. The stock of crude on hand for sale is light. This fact increases the confidence of holders who are firm at the advance we have previously noted. The river and railroad receipts of the raw material were 1,445 barrels. The asking rates for fair gravities were 7¼c. Holders were not very anxious to force operations, having made up their minds that their time is not far distant. The water to the oil regions is in excellent condition. Dispatches from that city represent the market as being very firm with plenty of buyers for the Cleveland and Eastern market, at the advance we have previously mentioned. The only crude operations were as follows: 1,000 bbls, viz—800 bulk 7¼c, and 200 bbls do. 7½c. This would be equal to 12½@12¾c, packages included.

REFINED OIL—Dull; holders and sellers wide apart. We could not learn of a single operation for present or future delivery. Current figures would be out of the question—we omit them. Most of our refiners have sufficient orders on hand to last for some time, and are naturally disposed to take things easy.

NEW YORK.

There has been a large movement in crude, says the Commercial List, for refining; and the sales embrace 32,000 bbls., 40@47 gravity, in bulk, at 10c, S. O., 40 days, and 2,900 bbls low gravity, 10¼@10½c—closing at 10c in bulk, and 10c, nominally, in shipping order, for 40@47 gravity. Refined, in bond, has been in good demand and the market has ruled steady; the sales are 250 bbls L. S. to W. at 22c; 11,500 bbls S. W., 25½@26c, the market closing quiet at about these figures; 4,000 gallons S. W. in tin, at 34c; 25,800 cases Devoe's Brilliant (the largest sale in cans ever made) on private terms; 500 bbls S. W., for July on private terms; and 1,000 bbls for August and September, 29c, B. O. Free is dull and we have no sales to report.

BOSTON.

The market for Crude Petroleum is very dull, says the Bulletin, of Saturday, as refiners do not care to increase their stocks, owing to the lack of margin on the manufactured article. Lots in bulk go a begging for purchasers at very low rates. Refined oil is in moderate demand for export to Southern latitudes, and some of our local refiners are doing a good business in the way of putting up their product on cars for shipment in that direction. There is very little doing at this point in the European trade, though at New York and Philadelphia it is understood there are considerable orders yet unfilled.

The demand for home consumption is very light, and only small lots are selling for future delivery. The experience of the past year or two forbids us to look for any early development of the fall trade, and it is hardly probable, unless the crude material shall meanwhile advance, that dealers will come into the market for their usual supplies until compelled to do so by the exigencies of consumption.

We quote crude petroleum here at 13@14c ₩ gallon in bulk, and nominally 16@18c in barrels. Refined is selling at 25@3 c ₩ gallon for bonded lots, as to brand. Included in sales are 250 bbls, for export to Cape Town, at 30c, and several lots of Downer's Kerosene, in cans for southern latitudes, at 40c ₩ gall. Free is selling at a range of 40@47c ₩ gallon for Western and Boston, up to 50@52c for Kerosene. Naptha is selling at a range of 17@30c ₩ gallon, as to gravity. Residuum is dull at $4@4 50 ₩ bbl,

The Fourth May Run of Coal.

From present appearances the May run of coal will be the largest we have ever known. This one now ready makes the fourth for this month and may be counted by millions of bushels. The lower markets will no doubt be well supplied. The following boats will leave on this water, number 16 tow boats, 95 barges, 38 boats, and 1,725,000 bushels of coal:

Coal Markets.

BOSTON.

The market is quiet, according to the Bulletin, and consignees are rather backward in taking their seasonable supplies. Picton and Sydney are a shade lower, and selling at $7 25@7 75 ₩ ton by the cargo. English Cannel is selling at $18@20 ₩ ton for large and small lots. Cumberland is selling at $8 50, and Pennsylvania and Westmoreland at $9 ₩ ton, delivered in Philadelphia. Anthracite is in moderate demand, by retail, at $9 ₩ ton, cash.

PHILADELPHIA.

The American says that the shipments for some time past have been in excess of the production, and the supply at Port Richmond is considerably reduced. Free burning coal is scarce. Very little if any Shamokin is at present in the market, and none at Franklin. Dealers in these coals, we understand, are refusing orders, and will continue to do so until prices become more remunerative. The unusual long and continued cold weather this spring has kept the coal market low, and the prospects for an early improvement in prices are not very favorable. The falling off in production this year, as compared with the last, is heavy, and unless shipments for the remainder of the season continue heavy, and without interruption, the market will be short at the close. Only about 3,500,000 tons have thus far been forwarded from the mines (and the season nearly half gone), leaving about 10,000,000 tons yet to be furnished to equal the tonnage of last year. Vessels continue in good supply, and eastern freights have slightly declined during the week. Prices of coal continue firm and unchanged at $4 50 to $4 75 for white ash and $4 75 to $5 00 for red ash, as to quality, on board of vessels.

LOUISVILLE.

Pittsburgh coal is quoted wholesale at 12@16c afloat, the latter rate including boats. The retail rate of the best Pittsburgh is 20c ₩ bush, delivered. We quote Pomeroy coal to boats 14c.

CINCINNATI.

The market remains quiet, says the Enquirer, though we have no change to notice in prices. We quote Ohio river 9c, and Youghiogheny 11c ₩ bush, afloat. The rates delivered to consumers are 14c for the former, and 16c for the latter.

New York Grocery Market.

Coffee—The market for Rio is not active, and for the lower grades, which are now in pretty good supply, prices are a shade lower, but good and prime being scarce, are held firm at previous rates. The steamer from Rio Janeiro, to the 23d ult., brings advices of rather low prices there, but nothing else of any particular moment. The sales are 1,740 bags Rio, to arrive via Hampton Roads, per Homely, at 11c; and 2,089 do per steamer Merrimack, in lots, part 13c gold, in bond. In Baltimore, 1,580 bags Rio, balance per Leopoldine, sold at 18½@18¾c; 401 do, common, balance per Brothers, 16½c gold, duty paid; and 600 do per Undine, on private terms. For other kinds the market remains steady but quiet. 524 bags Manilla sold at 18¾c; 250 Laguayra, 18¼c gold; and 350 mats Java, from second hands, on terms we did not learn.

Molasses—We have to notice a continued fair demand for home use, the market showing no particular change in prices since our last, except for low grades, which are inactive and favor buyers. The sales are 1,053 hhds, 87 tcs and 30 bbls Cuba Muscovado, in parcels, at 48@60c; 180 hhds Manganilla, 62c; 350 Porto Rico, 54@70c; and 110 Barbadoes, 58c, 4 mos. By auction, 200 hhds Demerara sold at 53@67c, 4 mos.

Rice—Inactive but steady at previous rates. Sales 450 tcs Carolina at $10 50@12; and 750 bags Rangoon, $9 50@9 75, cash.

Sugar—The market for raw has shown rather less activity than noticed in our last, but there has continued a good steady demand from refiners and the trade, and the valuations of Tuesday last are fully maintained, and, indeed, for refining grades there is a trifling improvement, and these closed strong at 10½@11c for fair to good Cuba, and 11½@11¾c for No. 12 box, strictly good refining yesterday brought 11¼. For other kinds there was no change to notice. Refined is not so active as before, and prices of some kinds are lower. Messrs. Stuart quote crushed, granulated and ground 15¼c, white A 14¾c, and yellow C 14½c; and others refiners quote hard 15½ cents, soft white 14@14½c, and yellow 13@13½ cash. The sales of raw are 3,582 hhds Cuba at 10@11¼c; 57 clarified do, 12@12½c; 239 Porto Rico, 11½@12½c; 1451 cs and boxes Havana, 10¾@10½c, and 644 boxes Havana, 10¾@12¼c, 4 mos.

Tea—There is only a moderate demand from the trade, and the market is without activity. The sales are 1,250 half chests Green, in lots, 1,789 uncolored Japan, mostly per Chaasze, and 350 Oolong.—Commercial List, 25th inst.

Hop Market.

NEW YORK.

Hops have been lightly dealt in, including new at 30@65c; old at 20@40c, and foreign at 55@80c ₩ lb. The past week's business is thus noticed by Mr. Emmet Wells: "The trade has been very much restricted this week by the unfavorable weather, but holders continue firm in their views, and prices remain unchanged. Reports from the growing sections continue to flow in, but the season is rather too early yet to place much value in them. Franklin county has suffered severely by the late cold rains, and many yards are now two weeks later. There are missing hills than for many years past, and growers are looking very gloomy over the prospects of the coming crop. From the Schoharie Valley our advices are more favorable. The general prospects in this section are considered 25 per cent. better than the spring of 1866. The heavy snows of the past winter preserved the roots in the valley, while on the uplands the yards are not looking as well. In the State of Wisconsin a perfect 'Hopmania' is said to prevail among farmers. Every available root is being planted, and a good share of the farmers with means are trying their hands at hop culture. Roots have sold as high as $20 ₩ thousand. The average yield per acre in Wisconsin last season was 1,600 lbs, while many yards produced 2,000 lbs, and a few run as high as 2,400 lbs to the acre. The yield in that State last season was about 12,000 bales, and present appearances indicate an increase of more than double the coming season."

New York Cattle Market.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Receipts 4,157 beeves, 11,171 sheep and lambs, 16,581 hogs. Beef cattle are decidedly firm; consequent on the light supply and active demand prices advanced fully ¼c, with some sales at prices indicating an advance of 1c. The quality of the offerings was unusually good, the sales being below 15c. Extra quality reached 19c; prime do 18½@18¾c; first quality 17½@18c; fair to good 17@17½c; ordinary to inferior 15@16½c.

Although the receipts continued moderate, the market for sheep and lambs was quite depressed and prices a shade lower, and demand light. Extras 9c; prime 8½c; ordinary and common 7@7½c; fair to good 8@8½c.

At last week's figures the hog market ruled steady. The demand, however, was only moderately active. At the Fortieth street hog yards this morning 11 car loads were on sale, 10 of which were disposed of at 7¾@7½c.

Philadelphia Cattle Market.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27.—Beef cattle advanced; sales 900 head; extras 18½@20c; fair to good 16@18c; common 14@15c. Hogs 10@11c net. Sheep dull and lower; sales 10,000 at 6½@7½c gross.

New York Finance and Trade

Gold Closed at 137.

NEW YORK, May 27—P. M.

THE MONEY MARKET.

Money rather more active but steady and unchanged. The reported failure of a St. Louis bank is explained by the fact that funds to pay some protested drafts were delayed en route.

STERLING

Firm at 109⅝@109⅞, closing with leading firms refusing to draw under the latter.

GOLD

Opened at 136⅞, declined to 136¾, advanced to 137¼, and closed at 137.

TOBACCO MARKETS.

BALTIMORE.

Receipts continue large, says the Commercial, of Saturday, both of Maryland and Ohio. The market for the former description is very active, the shippers buying freely for Bremen and Holland, and prices are steadily maintained, but in Ohio there is but comparatively little doing, the principal buyers of this description not having yet come into the market. The sales of Ohio this week have been only about 100 hhds. Kentucky is also dull, with small sales only to manufacturers. Inspected this week, 2,373 hhds Maryland, 811 Ohio, 21 Kentucky; total, 3,205 hhds, as follows, viz: We quote Maryland, as follows: Frosted to common $2@3; sound common $3 50@4 00; good common $5 00@5 50; middling $6 00@8 00; good to fine brown $10@15 00; fancy $17 00@25 00; upper country $3 00@30 00, and ground leaves, new, $2 00@14 00. Ohio is quoted as follows: Inferior to common $5 00@8 00; brown and spangled $9 00@12 50; good and fine red and spangled $14 00@17 00, and fine yellow fancy $26 00@30 00. In manufactured tobacco there has been no change in demand or prices. The receipts are light.

THE RIVER AND MATTERS ALONG THE WHARF.—The late rains have produced another big river. The Monongahela marks last evening indicated thirteen feet one inch, and rising steadily; the Allegheny marks thirteen feet ten. The coal boat men are having a busy time getting boats through the pools. If the river keeps up we may look for another big run of coal; all, however, depends on how much they will be able to pass through the locks. The punctual packet Ida Rees came in from Cincinnati with an excellent trip; she will return to Cincinnati on Thursday. The Argosy will be found at the landing this morning; she will return to Cincinnati on Wednesday. The far-famed packet Kenton is the only boat loading for New Orleans; she has the principal portion of her cargo on board, and will have dispatch. The Maggie Hays, a first class packet, is the only boat receiving for Cairo and St. Louis. The Bayard left on time for Parkersburg, with a good trip; the packet for this day is the Leni Leoti; she departs at noon. The Portsmouth packet for this afternoon is the Spray. The Ingomar left for Matamoras on time. The Belle Vernon will be found at the landing this morning. The present run of coal will be large—making the fourth run of coal this month. We give particulars in another part of this paper.

THE Portsmouth packet Spray is announced for that port this afternoon at 4 P. M.

WE are indebted to the officers of the steamer "Argosy" for attentions to this office.

FREIGHT AND PASSENGER STEAMERS IN PORT.—Maggie Hays, Kate Putnam, Ida Rees, Minnie, Importer, Delaware, Argosy, Kenton.

WHAT IS GOING TO HAPPEN?—The Louisville Courier in speaking of the Great Republic says she is a magnificent steamer.

THE punctual steamer Ida Rees has arrived with a big trip. She will return to Cincinnati on Thursday. Passengers and shippers will bear this in mind.

HEAVY ARRIVAL OF MACHINERY.—A wrecking boat has arrived at Cairo with the machinery of the Lackland, Natchez and John Walsh, sunk during the war in Yazoo river.

THE Parkersburg packet for this day is the steamer "Leni Leoti," Capt. Hamilton. She leaves at noon. Persons going that way will receive the best of attention. Persons going that way would do well to give this boat a call.

A FEW days since, at New Orleans, the steamer Annie Wagley was sold at auction by the sheriff, and purchased by Messrs. Hinckley & Kenison for $1,850. Captain Hinckley designs running her in the Opelousas trade in place of the steamer Victory.

"IT never rains but it pours," we have heard say, and now that Capt. McGill has got his new boat under way, two or three more contracts are likely to be closed before the end of May.—Louisville Courier. We suppose they will all be low pressure, and built on the Richmond's model.

STEAMBOATS AHEAD.—The La Crosse Republican affirms that the steamers of Davidson's "Lightning Line," between La Crosse and St. Paul, get into St. Paul every day an hour or more ahead of the cars, which leave Winona at the same time the boats leave.

THE Louisville Courier is always speaking of the clock-work punctuality of the steamer Richmond—we confess we "can't see it"—in her last trip she was announced to leave Louisville positively on Friday, but did not get off until Sunday morning. Was that punctuality?

GLAD OF IT.—Our old friend Capt. S. Hemphill has taken charge of the office of the steamer Kenton. The Captain is one of the most accomplished officers that comes to this port. We are pleased to see him in the office of so fine a packet. Capt. Dunlap is one of those persons that understands his business.

THE fine passenger steamer Maggie Hays, Captain D. L. Hendrickson, is receiving for Cairo and St. Louis, and will leave on Wednesday. This boat is one of the best of her class afloat, and is a great favorite with passengers and shippers. Call early and secure a passage.

A BIG TRIP.—The Dubuque Times says the steamer Davenport arrived from St. Louis yesterday morning, with the largest trip of the season. She had over four hundred cabin passengers and five hundred tons of merchandise on board. She left for St. Paul. The Herald says she had four hundred and twenty-five passengers in her cabins.

PASSENGERS and shippers would do well to bear in mind that the punctual packet Kenton, Capt. J. H. Dunlap, has the principal portion of her cargo on board for New Orleans, and will have dispatch. This boat goes through without reshipping. Capt. Dunlap is a very popular officer and has many friends, and does credit to their friendship. Our old friend Captain Sharp Hemphill will be found in the office.

SAFELY LANDED.—The coal boat belonging to R. & J. Watson, which was grounded at the head of Brunot Island on the last trip of the Grey Hound, was successfully taken off on Monday, by the Capt. James McCoy and Little Jim Rees, and is now ready to make part of the tow of the Grey Hound, which leaves here to-day the boat contained 34,000 bushels of coal, for the New Orleans market.

THE St. Louis Dispatch don't give a very flattering account of the business prospects at that place. Listen:

Business remains weary, stale, flat and unprofitable in every department of trade. The combination of agents whom we stated yesterday had secured a box of eggs for a boat have had quite a time in deciding which they should give it to. It was conveyed to the levee under a strong guard, and after considerable discussion, the several boats contending for it settled the matter by drawing straws. The boat that was fortunate enough to get it, will, we understand, leave positively to-morrow.

THE following is the freight list of the P. and St. Louis Barge Co: Wild Duck, with model barges Dove and Swan, second trip—kegs nails, 10,091; kegs nails, 286; bars iron, 4,519; bundles, 2,147; bundles sheet do, 77; plates boiler iron, 157; slabs, 70; bundles steel, 49; bars, 30; slabs, do, 15; castings, 10 tons; pieces hollow ware, 805; boxes axes, 1,576; boxes hardware, 525; boxes glass, 2,651; boxes glassware, 1,055; boxes bottles, 616; casks do, 109; do goblets, 2,572; carboys acid, 61; casks [illegible] 6; cases saponifier, 461; boxes paints, 16; [illegible] oil, 128; coils rope, 102; bundles straw boards, 180; sacks coffee, 32; barrels coal tar, 20; sacks hair, 51; barrels cement, 300; sundries, 33 packages. Total number of packages, 28,858.

IMPORTANT TO CONTRACTORS.—Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the United States Engineer, Davenport, Iowa, until 12 M., Wednesday, June 3, 1867, for excavating and removing the rock and other obstructions from the bed of the Mississippi river at Rock Island or Upper rapids, by means of coffer dams and sub-aqueous blasting or chiseling. Contractors will be required to furnish all boats, machinery, &c., and to perform all the labor necessary in the prosecution of the work. There is about 60,000 cubic yards of rock to be removed, distributed unequally at different points on the rapids, and the work must be done during the low water season, interfering as little as practicable with navigation.

Contractors will state the price per cubic yard for which they propose to do the work, which will be let as a whole or in sections, as the engineer in charge may determine.

SIZE AND SPEED OF EASTERN STEAMERS.—In answer to a correspondent, a recent number of the Scientific American says: "The dimensions of the Albany boat, St. Johns, are: Length, 417 feet; width, over all, 80 feet; beam, 50 feet. The engines are 82-inch cylinders and 15 feet stroke. Estimated horse-power over 1,800. She has accommodations for 700 passengers, is registered at 2,525 tons burden, draws from 6 to 6½ feet of water, and her speed is from 15 to 17 miles per hour. The Mary Powell averages twenty miles an hour, and on several occasions has made twenty-seven miles."

ANOTHER boat is being built at Louisville of the following dimensions:

Captain A. L. McGill has closed the contract for a new packet for the Louisville and New Orleans trade. Stewart & Barmore, of Jeffersonville, build the hull; McClaran, Coggshall & Co., of Louisville, build the cabin; John B. Davies & Co., the engines, and Joseph Mitchell the boilers. Her dimensions are: Hull, 290 feet long, forty-two feet beam, thirty-seven feet floor, and eight and a half feet depth of hold. Engines each to be 34 inches in diameter and nine feet stroke; largest sized wheels, with buckets fifteen feet in length. She is to have plenty of power.

THE STEAMER J. M. WHITE was built in Pittsburgh, in the spring of 1844, and was the second boat of that name. The first "White" was sunk at the Grand Chain in 1843. The White was built under the superintendence of her commander, J. M. Converse. The first Clerk was Mr. E. H. Beebee. She was owned entirely in St. Louis. From a lithograph, taken in St. Louis, by H. S. Blood, now in our possession, we take the following dimensions, without alteration: Hull by S. Walker, Elizabeth; length over all, 233 feet; beam, 64 feet, including guards; hold, 8 feet 6 inches; 850 tons burden; engines by Stackhouse & Tomlinson, 2 cylinders, 19 feet stroke, 30 inches in diameter; 320 horse power each; wheels, 30 feet in diameter, with 12 feet buckets. The J. M. White left Pittsburgh in March, 1844, and in June of the same year, on her third trip, made the celebrated run from New Orleans to St. Louis—1,200 miles—in three days and twenty-three hours time, which to this day stands unrivalled. At the time she made the run there was not a single cut-off from New Orleans to St. Louis. She ran the old channel all the way. Another disadvantage she labored under was, there were no such things as wood flats. Every pound of fuel she consumed on the trip was taken from the bank, and of course time was lost in so doing, which, if taken out, would make her time under three days and twelve hours. We will publish her time to the various points in a few days, taken from a Cincinnati paper, published at that time.

The Fastest Steamboats.

The St. Louis Dispatch publishes the "fastest time" made by the Western steamers, as follows: In May, 1853, steamer Eclipse, from New Orleans to Louisville, 1480 miles, in 4 days, 9 hours, 30 minutes, beating the A. L. Shotwell, in the same month, 10 minutes. In June, 1844, J. M. White, from New Orleans to St. Louis, 1200 miles, in 3 days, 23 hours—never beaten. In 1853, Telegraph No. 3, from Louisville to Cincinnati, 150 miles, 9 hours, 51 minutes, beating the time of the Pittsburgh, in 1852, by 32 minutes, and that of the Allegheny, by 47 minutes.

The same paper puts down, in 1850, the Telegraph No. 2, from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh, in 41 hours; in 1848, instead of 1850. Also it gives the Buckeye State's time from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh, in 1850, at 40 hours; and that of the Pittsburgh in 1852, at 39 hours. These figures, we think, are too small by about three hours to each boat. At the time the Buckeye State made her great run, it was set down from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh, in 43 hours, beating any previous time 1 hour and 14 minutes.

We may add that the Buckeye State, in May, 1850, carried the "24-hour pole," (24 hours from Cincinnati,) to about half a mile above Parkersburg, about twenty-five miles above where the Telegraph No. 2 left it, in 1848, near Dewitt's creek. This was about two hundred and eighty-six miles from Cincinnati. In 1853, the David White (twice), the Thomas Swan, and the Alvin Adams, of the Wheeling "Union Line," attempted to carry the pole higher up the river, but they all failed to do so; and the 24-hour distance of the Buckeye State, above Cincinnati, has never been beaten, and probably never will be, as steamboats on the Ohio are not probably now built so much for speed exclusively, to secure passengers, as for the additional advantage of carrying a paying quantity of freight.
